

Sugar Company Urges Keeping Sugar Controls

Repetition of Story Following World War 1 Is Feared Probable

SAN FRANCISCO (special to the Pilot)—With estimated 1947 sugar supplies in this country at least 1,000,000 tons short of public requirements, it is imperative that government controls over sugar be extended through 1947, if this country is to avoid a repetition of the severe shortages and skyrocketing prices which followed abrupt decontrol of sugar after World War 1.

This warning has been issued by Earl B. Wilson, president of California and Hawaiian Sugar Refining Corporation, Ltd., and former director of the sugar branch of the United States Department of Agriculture, who states that certain uninformed interests are campaigning for precipitate action in decontrolling sugar. It is Mr. Wilson's belief that lifting of controls may lead to a repetition of occurrences following World War 1, when uncontrolled sugar prices rose to 40c a pound retail, while shortages became increasingly acute, working severe hardships on individual consumers, food manufacturers and the sugar industry in general.

Supporting Mr. Wilson's stand in urging gradual rather than sudden decontrol of sugar, are such organizations as the California Retail Grocers and Merchants Association, representing grocers throughout California, The Canners League of California, representing the majority of the state's food canners, and several others directly or indirectly concerned with the distribution and consumption of sugar.

Mr. Wilson states that his company and the sugar industry as a whole are anxious for a return of the sugar business to a free market status, but want it accomplished in such a manner as to assure reasonable stability of prices and equitable distribution during the decontrol period. To that end Mr. Wilson is urging that congress immediately enact such legislation as is necessary to extend sugar controls through December 31, 1947, at the same time directing the department of agriculture to carry out the program of orderly, gradual decontrol which it has already undertaken in conjunction with the sugar industry. Widespread public approval and support of these recommendations is already indicated, C. and H. officials state.

Pine Cone Books Three Show Hits

Starting Friday and Saturday, with "Old Sacramento," the Pine Cone Theatre again bills three show hits which should please the most discriminating showgoers of the area.

Out of the roaring, colorful era of Early California comes one of the most thrilling romantic stories ever put on the screen. William Elliott and Constance Moore carry the leading roles.

One of the greatest commendations one actor can give another actor is that he is "an actor's actor," and Ingrid Bergman is the actor's actor, when she couples with Cary Grant, Sunday and Monday in the filming of "Notorious," which is the second hit of the week at the Pine Cone.

Miss Bergman rejects conventional leading roles in favor of character studies. An actor then must "act." She cannot wear the beautiful clothes and hope they will win the box office appeal.

Closing the week at the Pine Cone will be "Dead End," featuring Joel McCrea and Humphrey Bogart. These two need no fanfare to tell of their talents in portraying the roles they carry in any picture.

Since installation of the projection and sound equipment, the movie-goers receive, here in this area, shows and everything that may be found in the large city theatres.
