Music Festival Is Planned

The high school music festival will be given on March 28. The program will be composed of classical and semi-classical music, and the mixed chorus and girls glee club singing. The remainder of the program will consist of trios, solos, and other special numbers. There is to be a dance and reception following, and everyone present is expected to have a good time.

Attorney Ed F. Ackley returned Monday from two months at San Francisco on court matters.

Parent-Teachers Assn. Talks "Visual Education"

At the February meeting of Parent-Teachers Association, the idea of installing projection and sound equipment to carry out a program of "visual education," was one of the principal topics.

A committee, composed of one teacher, a P.-T. A. member and Norris Kemp will meet with the school board at the next meeting of that group to devise means of financing this movement. The P.-T. A. is willing to aid in the purchase.

Miss Steeves Gives "Mags" To Library

Miss Kathleen Steeves of this area has presented to the high school library a valuable collection of the National Geographic Magazines, dating from January, 1912, to December, 1931, inclusive.

Our district board has had the magazines bound into 40 volumes—each volume contains six issues, and each volume has its own topographical index, which greatly enhances the usefulness of this collection.

Students and faculty of the high school wish to thank Miss Steeves and the school board for making this collection available for our use. Also, we are happy to announce the addition of a new encyclopedia set to our library. The old set of Americanas has been replaced by new volumes which are of intrinsic worth to us as we seek supplementary material to make more vital the information gained from our own text books.

Girls League Notes

A girls league meeting was called to order by the president, Merli Baumgartner, on Tuesday,

Feb. 4, to vote on the question of sponsoring a May Queen for the music festival which is set for March 28. The motion to do so was carried, as was one to let the girls league nominate the candidates, and the whole student body vote for the girl to be queen. It was decided not to have a court, and that the league would place before the student body the names of the four winning most vote.

The following were nominated: Merli Baumgartner, Patty Braun, Diane Burrell, Yolande Ettinger, Susie Gurske, Joane McDonald, Joyce Morris, and Dorothy Robinson. Winners were Jione, Diane, Dorothy and Merli.

Dottie Stark, Yolande Ettinger, Ina Payne, and Helen Payne were named on the committee responsible for crowning of the queen.

There was a suggestion that the girls have a fashion show. Larrie Robinson, Lynette Raymond and Phyllis Huffman were appointed to arrange to rent the theatre on a Tuesday night.

A committee for getting clothes, ect., includes Ethel Pierce, Marilyn Struebing, Barbara Bates, and Dorothy Robinson.

Program committee includes Phyllis Huffman, Ruth Hassett, Charlotte Landauer, Diane Burrell, Norma Felipe and Joane McDonald.

Juanita Kinion, Alma Salmon, Irene Rau, and Bettj Goldizen will be responsible for tickets.

Girls Plan Dance Festival

The girls' physical education class is planning a dance festival to be given this spring. For the past three weeks they have been learning folk dances for the occasion. The dances learned so far are: Swedish Shottish, Swiss Polka, Swedish Kiss Dance, Mexican LaCucaracha, Varsuvian, Seven Jumps, Arkansas Traveler, Rye Waltz and the Swedish Polka.
