

Cone Books Show Hits

O'Brien and Herbert Marshall after sixteen years, find themselves again in the same show. They are co-starred with Trevor in RKO's Radio City thriller, "Crack-Up," to open the week of shows at the Pine Cone Theatre.

On the last occasion on which they appeared together was in the Broadway play, "Tomorrow and Tomorrow."

Pat Marshall who sold the idea of movies, and not generally supposed, Hollywood in 1932, Marshall already completed "The Letter" with Bette Davis before Pat appeared in "The Front hospital. Her first contact with the dread disease followed quickly, and how she copes with it gives her an initial clue to effecting results. Her rebuffs from conservative medical authorities; her fight to establish clinics only to see them shut down at the instigation of the medical authorities, and her sacrifice of personal happiness builds to the picture's climax.

The James Boys ride again at the Pine Cone next Wednesday and Thursday. From 20th Century-Fox's treasure chest of hits an outstanding encore to show "Jesse James," or the "Return of Frank James." will thrill the audiences of the local show.

Harbor School Notes

FIRST GRADE
Mrs. Christensen taught the first grade last Friday. Mrs. De Moss was away at Portland.

The first grade has a finger painting set. We bought it with the prizes we earned from the Parent-Teacher membership contest. Tuesday we painted pictures. They are pretty.

Monday the second grade invited us to watch them show how to set a table.

Last week we had our Valentine party. Eddie Hoar, Ellis Yelton and Walter Craig were postmen and handed them out. For refreshments we had cool-aid and cookies.

William Moreland, Dale Crump, Lena Woody, Jimmy Widney, Anna Ettinger and Jerry Lee Cagley have been absent.

SECOND GRADE
Ralph Carr, David Carlson, Phillip Kessler, Richard Garvin, Ray and Kay Brooks, Patsy Taylor, Brabara Guthrie and Raye Jean Minshew brought books for us to read at school.

We invited the first grade in our room and demonstrated how to set a table.

Earl Henry, Brian English, Dixie Wolfe and Vanda Vaughn have been absent.

We drew log cabins on Lincoln's birthday.

We have been learning to write to 100 by 2s.

THIRD GRADE
Marjorie Moore is the star again in arithmetic contest.

Group one is going to read "Ice from the Clouds," in "More Streets and Roads."

We have our new Weekly Readers.

Trains laugh at winter!

You can forget about cold weather, rain and snow when you travel in a warm, steam-heated train.

Steel rails are the smoothest, safest highway ever invented—safe when wet.

Next time you travel, let the engineer do the driving for a change. Our lowest fares for chair car and coach accommodations are good on most of our very fastest trains.

We have a picture of birds in our room.

Sharon Allen showed us some pretty bird cards.

We have changed seats this week.

Dick Tadling is a new student in our room. We like him.

There are now two Dicks in our room.

Joanne, Lois, Judith and others have "E" in spelling.

Local News Items

Janet Crump was honored, on Sunday, on her ninth birthday. A few of her classmates and neighbor children gathered at her home in the afternoon to help her observe the event. She received many gifts. Refreshments were served late in the afternoon.

Bert DeMoss returned Sunday with his wife, who had gone to Portland to consult an oculist. While appearing to be in good health, Bert must go back for more observation and treatment. He has been in a hospital there for several weeks.

Mrs. Goldie V. Smith was not at her usual tasks at the Brookings post office Saturday and the first of the week due to an intestinal ailment which put her to bed and under care of a doctor. She is reported to be recovering well.

Mr. and Mrs. Bert McFarland and son, Jimmy, of Dayton, were brief callers in this area Tuesday, en route home from a two-months trip to Phoenix, Arizona. They were astonished at the warm weather they encountered here. They had traveled through some pretty bad weather on their trip thus far.
