

LANGLOIS

Et-elene Thompson

Birthdays.
L. D. McConnell entertained a group of young folks, Saturday afternoon, in honor of daughter's ninth birthday. Guests were Mrs. Mae Woodruff and Miss Billie Lee Woodruff. The afternoon was spent at the following which cake and jam were served.

Business Meeting
Regular meeting of Floras Club was held at the home, Thursday, with 15 members present. A pot luck dinner was enjoyed at noon, with Pauline Anderson winning the prize, donated by Mrs. E. H. Stotenburg. Kenneth Anderson and little A. D. Auer were also dinner guests.

Following dinner a business meeting was called. A financial report was given by the treasurer who also reported the net from the Talent Hour at the donation for Langlois Athletic club was given to Mr. Auer to pay for the horizontal bars and other equipment. has been installed at the school gym. He expressed his appreciation in behalf of the club.

The club presented a chenille tablecloth to Mrs. Carrie Boice as a thank-you gift, in appreciation for hospitality shown. It was through her liberal offer to the club meet in rooms of her home she has made it possible for the club to cling together the past two years. The next meeting will be held Thursday, February 27, with auction of articles donated by members.

Members are urged to attend and become members. The goal is enlarged membership destined to boost local organizations such as school band, athletic club, Boy Scouts, cemetery and street light fund as well as county health association.

Birthdays
Twenty-one were present, Sunday at the Sabin-Thompson cottage at Floras Lake, for the pot luck dinner to celebrate the following birthdays which occurred in the month: Mrs. Will Sabin, Kenneth Hofess, Miss Lou Sperson, Loren Sabin, and Jeannette Thompson.

Brother With Dinner
A. E. Volck gave a birthday dinner Saturday evening in honor of her brother, Alva Harry, neighborhood driver, at her home.

Cope Celebrates Birthday.
A. W. Cope gave a dinner

Sunday in honor of her husband's birthday.

Langlois News Briefs.
Mr. and Mrs. Bill Henry and baby of Tillamook visited her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Tex Breeden-Denmark were shopping at Coos Bay, Friday.

Mr. and Mrs. Hal Pierce of Coquille were week-end guests of their son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Everett Strain on Langlois Hill.

Dick Hofess went to Portland Tuesday for medical attention. He was delighted to learn that it would not be necessary to make another trip for four weeks instead of the weekly trip. He has suffered immeasurably since his accident last August, but is happily looking forward to discarding his crutches in a month or so.

Mr. and Mrs. R. W. Jacobson Jr. of Longview, Wash., are parents of a baby girl, named Eue Ann. Mrs. Jacobson will be remembered as Miss Lois Perkins a graduate of the local high school. Mr. Jacobson was stationed at Port Orford for a time with the coast guard.

Don Auer came from Coquille Friday evening for his mother-in-law, Mrs. Carrie Boice. They took Mrs. Auer to the MsAuley hospital, Coos Bay, where she underwent major surgery, Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Ben Burgess of love on Sixes recently, upon their return home they were accompanied by Bill's grandmother, Mrs. Mae Woodruff, who spent a week with her son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Henry. While there Mrs. Woodruff also saw her new great-granddaughter for the first time at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Dick Henry.

Frank Strain went to Coquille Friday where he purchased a new Dodge car.

Fred Guerin of Myrtle Creek visited relatives here this week.

Mr. and Mrs. Cliff Campbell, Mrs. Clark Boice and Mrs. Wilburn Autery went to North Bend Thursday.

Mr. and Mrs. Wilburn Autery and son left Saturday to visit relatives in Washington. Mr. Autery is on vacation from the Langlois Cheese Factory.

Mr. and Mrs. John Chenoweth drove to Coquille Friday where Mr. Chenoweth received medical attention.

Mrs. Charles Doane Jr. went to North Bend Tuesday for her husband who was in the hospital, convalescing from appendectomy.

Mr. and Mrs. A. A. Johnson of Coos Bay were callers at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Ben Burgess at Denmark, Tuesday evening. Mr. Johnson is connected with Johnson Electric Co. and spent Tuesday installing a food saver at Port Orford.

Mrs. Alice Stankovitch was ill with flu last week and unable to attend to her usual duties.

Paul Baney's bridge crew of the state highway department, Coquille, is repairing Floras Creek bridge and driving new piling under the wooden structure. Another improvement in the community is the excavation at the intersection with the dirt being used to repair a fill near town.

Mrs. Reta Glidden and Mr. Philpott of Portland visited Mrs. Glidden's relatives in this area last week.

Mrs. George Churchill and children of Port Orford spent the week-end at Eureka, Calif., with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. David McKenzie.

Mr. and Mrs. Darrell Elliott left Sunday for their home at Corvallis after a week spent at the home of her mother, Mrs. Velma Sabin.

Remember the community get together at the grade school on February 28. Come and bring your friends.

Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Britton and family of Portland spent the week-end at their ranch at Denmark.

Curtis Sabin was called to Portland last week by the army for a medical check-up. He had served in the Philippines for a number of months.

Mrs. Carrie Boice has received word from her son, Allen, who has been serving with the marines in China, that he will be home soon.

Harry Strain has purchased the Floras Lake school bus.

Port Orford grades triumphed over the local boys, Monday, by a 20 to 10 score.

Two new pupils enrolled at the grade school: Jerry Iambdin in the eighth and his brother Dick, in the sixth. They came from Billings, Mont. and are staying with their uncle, Joe Marsh at Four Mile.

Langlois High was badly defeated by Bandon, 47 to 25 last week. The locals were without services of their captain. Scott of Bandon scored 22 points. This is the second victory for Bandon. However, Bandon girls took the same kind of a licking from the Langlois girls, 46 to 17.

Two High School Boys Guests On Birthdays

Miss Helen Payne and Miss Joanne McDonald were hostesses at a surprise birthday party Saturday evening for Gene Reiling and Howard Groesbeck, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Reiling. The reports are that these two students weren't quite as surprised as was planned, but an enjoyable evening of games and stunts was held. After opening of gifts, refreshments of ice cream and cake were served, following which the group attended the masquerade ball at Harbor Grange.

Local News Items

Soon to be presented by the senior class of Brookings high school is the rollicking comedy, "A Ready Made Family," a play in three acts. Watch for further details.

Mr. and Mrs. Ray Hazeltine of Hood River, returning from a month's stay at Carmel, Calif., spent the week-end with Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd A. Moss, of Smith River.

W. D. Hollingworth of North Bend was a visitor in this area last week.

Frank Stotenburg of South-Gate, Calif., is spending an indefinite time with Mr. and Mrs. E. H. Stotenburg. He is a nephew of Mr. Stotenburg.

Mr. and Mrs. Jack Rogers of Denver, Colo., surprised his parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Rogers last week by visiting them on their honeymoon, after being married at Reno, Nev.

Mrs. Mildred Leidig returned to her home at Hayward, Calif., this week, after visiting Mrs. Laura Millgard.

Bob Cox and Archie Diment are in Portland this week on business.

Wednesday evening the Satellite club entertained 75 Masons and their wives at the Grange hall. Dinner was buffet style. C. C. Turley sang several numbers and led the entire group in singing. Mr. and Mrs. Bob Perkins entertained with a mind reading act, and dancing concluded the evening.

Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Crissey were called to Los Angeles Tuesday night, by the illness of her brother.

A surprise party, given in honor of Mrs. Archie Hendricks' birthday, was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Frank George last Wednesday evening with 20 present. Ice cream, cake and coffee were served.

People are urged to attend the Rod & Gun Club basketball and dance, Saturday evening.

H. C. Leming

BARBER SHOP

HOURS:

Monday, through Friday

9 a. m. to 6 p. m.

Saturday, 9 a. m. to 7 p. m.

Glass Porch, North End of...

Central Building

CHAMPION Outboard Motors

4.2 H. P. $129.00

Get one now while you have a chance. Call or write us. It can be shipped to you on about three-day delivery.

Pacific Chain Saw Co.

520 East J. Ph. 1163J GRANTS PASS

Bill Ward Clothing Store

BRINGING BROOKINGS THE BEST

EVERYTHING for the WORKING MAN!

Keep Your Feet Dry With
HUBERD'S SHOE OIL AND GREASE

Lee Jeans (black) in sizes 31 to 38

YOUR REXALL STORE

Ready To Serve You Always

Chetco Drug Co.

T. W. Zenier

PHONE 183

TIRES TIRES!

We Have Them in Stock:

6.00 x 16 and 6.50 x 16

Don't Run on Old Tires Any Longer When Such are Here!

BROOKINGS GARAGE

Claude Goldizen

George Darling

Next Door to Brookings Market

Eddie Desjardin will furnish the music for after the game February 21 $1.00 admits you

FRIDAY, FEBRUARY 21

Camboldt State Junior Varsity

Versus

Chetco Rod & Gun Club 'Ramrods'

Smith River Independents

Versus

Chetco Rod & Gun Club 'Pistol Cleaners'

HIGH SCHOOL GYMNASIUM