Seniors Will Stage Play, on March 21

Swinging into full production is the gay comedy, "A City-made Family." This three-act farce will be presented by the senior class of Brookings high school at the auditorium, March 21. It is a date to remember!

The story: Agnes, the young widow, while vacationing at the seashore, meets her school sweetheart, Henry, now a widower, and they become engaged. Neither tells the other of the children at home. The children, not at all pleased with the forthcoming marriage, to upset the matrimonial pact. And do these scheming children create embarrassing scenes? Bob elects to have fits, Marilee—how she embarrasses with such baby talk. Then, there is Gracie, the holy terror. Sammie! That charming lad likes to become a kleptomaniac while his lovely sister, Doris, comes "cracked" on one sub-her occupation.

You will see the senior class who have never seen them before. You will be delighted as plot of this play unravels before you, and each senior does part to resolve the confusing up, and bring about a conclusion, happy to all. The cast: James Martyn, a widow—Merbaumgartner. Her son—Howard Groes-

Marilee, her eldest daughter—Landauer.
 Gracie, her youngest child—McDonald.
 Lydia, her sister-in-law—Crook.
 Henry Turner, a widower—James.
 Doris, his daughter—June Has-

Sammie, his son—Neil Nelson.
 Agnes, the Martyn's ducky—Phyllis Huffman.
 Edmundus, the Martyn's colored handy-man—Ray Foltz. Miss Ruth Woodward is coaching the players, and Miss Helen Payne is acting as assistant coach and will prompt the players during rehearsals, and the night of performance.

Local News Items

Dr. Vance H. Webster, of the First Baptist church of Eugene, president of the Oregon Baptist State Convention, was speaker at the fellowship supper last Tuesday evening at the community church, when a large crowd was present. While here, he was entertained at the home of Rev. and Mrs. C. E. Dunham.

Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Thurston of Linden, Calif., spent a few days visiting Rev. and Mrs. C. E. Dunham last week.

Miss Josephine Darrah and Col. John J. Moran of San Francisco were house guests of Mr. and Mrs. Victor Reynolds at the VE ranch over the week-end. Col. Moran is recuperating from the tropical ailments he contracted during his long service in New Guinea and Philippines. Those days here were thoroughly enjoyed by the guests as there was plenty of sunshine and fishing so they were able to take four good-sized steelhead back to the city with them.

Clarence Brammer returned home after spending the last six weeks in Montana and California visiting relatives.

Mr. and Mrs. Wes Winton and Mrs. Emma Hellrig arrived from Chemult, Ore., the latter part of the week and plan to make their permanent home on the Hellrig ranch up the Winchuck. Joe Hellrig plans to join the family soon to make his home here.

Miss Lois Christensen has gone to Crescent City where she has accepted the position as receptionist for Dr. Miller.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Anderson left Saturday for a three weeks trip to Mexico, with plans to go down the west coast.

Mrs. Curt Waldien is visiting relatives at Los Angeles for a few weeks.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Essley and son, Mr. and Mrs. John Wilber and daughter, and Henry and Harry Payne spent the week-end here from Cave Junction at which place they are working.

Mr. and Mrs. William Foltz were hosts to basketball squad of Brookings high school, Sunday afternoon at a dinner in the players honor. As usual at any affair staged by the Folsz, everyone had fun.

A week ago, Sunday, the basketball team and girl friends were given a turkey dinner by Mr. and Mrs. Thor Ask, with about 40 present for the evening.

Harbor School Notes

FIRST GRADE
 William Moreland came back to school Monday. He has been absent a week.
 Sharon Car rand Philip Bond are out of school with chicken pox.
 The boys and girls painted some nice looking trees with their finger-painting set. We also made designs.
 Our arithmetic class is making paper money. We are going to have a play store in our room.
 Dale Crump brought several beautiful bouquets of daffodils to school. Dale has been ill with blood poisoning in his elbow.

THIRD GRADE
 Delores Stark brought a new jumping rope to school. We like it very much.
 We have some new playground equipment at school.
 Tuesday the Cubs sang us their Cub song. We enjoyed it.
 We have a new boy in our room. His name is Richard.
 Gary Payne and Bill Maloney cleaned up the yard this week.
 We made up a story about the desert. We got the idea from "More Streets and Roads."
