

LANGLOIS

Mrs. Ethelene Thompson

Kenneth Hofsess was a business caller at Coquille, Saturday. Clarence Fain drove to Port Orford Saturday evening to attend a meeting of the Masons.

Malcolm Klepher who has spent the winter at Bremerton, Wash., visited his aunt, Mrs. Velma Sabin, Tuesday evening. He left the following morning for Palo Alto, Calif., to visit another aunt, Mrs. Homer Faris, and family.

About eighty attended the community party at the grade school gym Friday evening. The time was spent playing games, singing and dancing. Refreshments were served. Mrs. Conners and son, of Bandon, were guests.

Mrs. Hazel Hofsess and daughter, Donna, were shopping at Coquille, Saturday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. Wilburn Autery and son attended the show at Bandon, Thursday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Thompson of Dallas, Ore., spent Wednesday evening with Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Thompson; and left the following day to visit relatives in California.

Clarence Fain and Loren Sabin started work last week with Paul Baney's bridge crew of the state highway department.

Mrs. James White and Mrs. Joe Cox were shopping at Coquille, Thursday.

Miss Barbara Wright of Bandon was a Saturday night guest at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Jensen and family at Denmark.

Jim Jenkins of Bandon was a Langlois business visitor Monday.

Miss Ruth Kreutzer celebrated her birthday, Monday, with good wishes being extended to her by friends.

Thirty-one attended Sunday school. Rev. Rosenkilde announced that a prayer meeting service would be held each Tuesday evening at the church during the month of March.

L. Kreutzer has bought a quonsett hut from Charles Wilmarth and is having it assembled on his ranch for use as a calf shed.

Local sheepmen report that their sheep and lambs were hard hit by the cold storm over the week-end. Some of the hill ranchers reported hail on their ranges Sunday morning.

Dick Hofsess and Loren Sabin were business visitors at Coos Bay, Saturday.

Little Lee Cox of North Bend

visited his grandmother, Mrs. Katie Hofsess and his uncle, Walter, last week. They took him home Saturday as he had to go to the doctor for medical attention for his arm, broken several weeks ago.

Mr. and Mrs. Mike Sypher and daughters of Camas Valley visited friends and relatives here this week.

Twelve attended the regular Floras Willow Club meeting, at the club room, Thursday. A pot luck dinner was enjoyed at noon and a handsome profit was realized from the auction held in the afternoon. Mrs. Pauline Anderson was auctioneer. Mrs. Vera Pook of Brush Prairie was a visitor and accepted the invitation to become a member. The next meeting will be held at the club rooms, March 13. All members are urged to come.

Relatives have received announcements from Mr. and Mrs. B. White, of the birth of a baby born Feb. 21. He is their second child. Mrs. White is the daughter of Mrs. Katie Carpenter, and granddaughter of the late Mrs. Cora J. Conrad, both were residents of Coos and Curry counties.

Miss Jean Everest entertained her Sunday school class, Saturday with a party at her home. Harry Strain, bus driver of the Floras Lake school bus, is living at Floras Lake.

Mary Jean and Joe Sabin were week-end guests of their grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Will Sabin of this area.

Dr. and Mrs. W. L. Pemberton of San Jose, Calif., visited old friends here, Saturday. They are old-time residents of Langlois; the doctor had a practice here about 35 years ago, later moving to Myrtle Point, where he owned and operated a hospital.

Little Rod Sabin is ill with whooping cough.

Jake Whit is confined to his home with a siege of flu.

Mr. and Mrs. Dorchman, of Port Orford were visitors in this community, Monday.

Harry Tedson, of Smith River, Calif., who has been visiting his friends at Reedsport and Mr. and Mrs. Virgil Libby of North Bank of the Coquille, spent the week-end at Langlois with friends. Harry is a former student of the local schools.

The grade students and teachers published the February issue of the School Bell News last Friday. The group is to be commended upon the clever cartoons, humor and spicy news.

Two 4-H clubs were organized here recently, and the members are working towards scholarships to the summer school at Corvallis. The bachelor sewing club has eight members and is made up of President, Clyde Quigley; vice-president, Dick Everest; secretary-treasurer, Charles Clarke; Billy Storm, Bennie Brown, Donald Bramen, Jerry Lambden, and Speed Anderson. Our Home club is composed of 10 girls. They are Pres., Margaret Morris; vice-president, Mary Jean Sabin; secretary-treasurer, June Sypher; Anne Kruetzer, Betty Moad, Irene Farrier, Patty Boice, Grey-marie Deliaven, Donalee Apling, and Donna Hofsess.

The Langlois volleyball team was defeated by the Brookings girls by a 29 to 26 score on the Ophir floor, Tuesday evening. The Brookings girls completely out-classed the Pantherettes in the first half and the score stood 20 to 7 in favor of Brookings. In the second half Langlois began to make points and piled up 18 to Brookings' nine in the last period. To Brookings went the county championship. Martha Crew, of the losers was high scorer with 10 and Landauer was high for Brookings with 6.

The Panthers leave for the Ashland invitational tournament this week.

For your every insurance need See Pete Lesmeister Agency.

Too Late To Classify

For Rent: Furnished two-room apartment. Yelton, at Willow & Spruce.

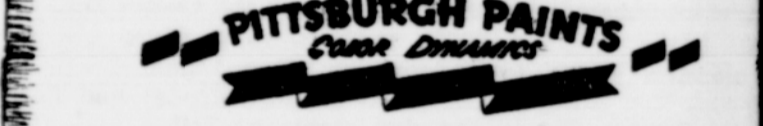

For Sale: Owing to ill health, will sell my bulbs, in the ground. Mrs. Welham, care Mrs. Goldie Smith, Brookings.

FOR SALE—Early Rose seed potatoes and cookers. Joe Rose, Harbor, Oregon.

Sell, Buy or Trade—In Pilot Classified

WE HAVE ON HAND:
Rake Shake Siding
Johns-Manville Asbestos Siding
45-lb., 55-lb., 65-lb. and 90-lb. Roofing
34", 39" and 44" Heatilators
1/4", 9/16" and 3/4" Plywood
Masonite Temperboard
Masonite Tempered Tileboard
Johns-Manville Wallboard
Doors Windows Mouldings
Floor Tile Chromtrim
4" Sewer Tile Chimney Tile
Building Hardware Glass

WHERE YOU GET THE MOST OF THE BEST FOR THE LEAST — PLUS

"J. & N."

GREEN SAVINGS STAMPS

Brookings Market

Thor Ask Peggy Ask

DAVENOS

By SIMMONS, wine tapestry.....$84.50
By SIMMONS blue tapestry.....$99.50
By HARMON, heavy blue floral tapestry $124.50

Simmons 39-inch Rollaway Beds
Complete with cotton mattress, $31.45

NEW SHIPMENT

Swing Rocks, upward from.....$43.50

Hendricks' Furniture Co.

New Johnson Building Store Hours 9 a. m. to 6 p. m. Brookings Oregon

The World Almanac For
1947
JUST ARRIVED!
Get Your Copy Now!

CHAD'S Fountain

Come in and Look At These Two Popular Numbers

JUST ARRIVED — 8-inch Woodsman Boots, With heavy cord soles.

Brookings Shoe Service

Shoe Repairing B. J. Gould New Shoes Peggy Gould