Ginger Rogers In Feature Billing

Ginger Rogers' role in 'Magnificent Doll' answers a long cherished ambition. The part of Dolly Madison, that fabulous, glamorous first lady of history, is Ginger's first costume role.

Ginger has always wanted to do a costume part ever since the day that she coaxed John Ford into testing her for the role of Queen Elizabeth in "Mary, Queen of Scots." Someone else got the part and the gorgeous gowns, and Ginger went on her way frustrated until she sublimated the urged somewhat in "Lady in the Dark."

But the Dolly Madison characterization in 'Magnificent Doll,' a Universal release coming Sunday to the Pine Cone theatre, is Ginger's dream come true.

Starting the week with George Raft in "Nocturne," the Pine Cone winds up the week with "Down Missouri Way." Playing for the last time tonight is the popular "Don't Fence Me In."

Rebekahs Initiate Nine, Tuesday

There were about 60 members present at the regular meeting of Topaz Rebekah lodge, Tuesday night when nine candidates were initiated. The Rebekah drill team presented its beautiful degree work at the close of the initiation. The new members are Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Stefani, Mrs. Mary Storset, Mrs. Harriet Stephenson, Mrs. Mary Mendenhall, Mrs. Mary Hassett, Mrs. Edna Young, Mrs. Emma Waldien and Mrs. Mary Ettinger.

It was reported that the committee appointed to purchase a new stove for the I. O. O. F. hall has bought a combination gas stove with attached circulating heater, and that it was installed. Those using the hall will find this an added improvement over the former equipment which not only was a fire hazard, but was ready to fall to pieces.

Refreshments of ice cream, coffee and cookies were served by Beryl Bollinger, Mina Christensen, Gertrude Cole and Mercedes Phillips, following the ceremony.
