Many attractive arrangements of rare and beautiful varieties of daffodils and spring blossoms were artistically arranged in pottery and low containers.

Almost 100 daffodils were arranged with proper classification on a large green-backed screen. This display was arranged by Mrs. Lester Ulrich and Mrs. C. Hight. Other garden lovers who exhibited choice flowers were: Mrs. Chester Maris, Mrs. Kenneth Layman, Mrs. Carlton Bosch, Mrs. Forest Dunham, Mrs. Robert Maris, Mrs. Fred Haight, Mrs. Lester Ulrich, Mrs. Clarence Hight, and Mrs. Clarence Westbrook.

Much appreciation was extended Carl Gustafson of Harbor who donated bunches of special Holland variety of King Alfreds.

Lawrence Baker of Redwood Acres, Del Norte County, displayed three hybrids of the Amaryllis family in blossom which was on display during the afternoon.

Many plants were contributed for the plan sale by local flower gardens and these plants and gladiolus bulbs were on sale as were many cut flowers.

The lace-covered tea table was centered with a flower arrangement of pink flowering peach and Cheerfulness daffodils arranged by Mrs. Evelyn Scott. Presiding at the tea table during the afternoon were representatives of the woman's clubs of Del Norte and Curry counties.

Proceeds from the sale of the plants and flowers will be used to carry on the work of the local library committee, sponsored by the Smith River Woman's club.

President, Mrs. Robert Wilson has called a special meeting for Friday afternoon at 2:30 when committee reports will be read. All officers are urged to come.

Dog Poisoning

When the Devil starts making his great reward for the meanest hounds deserving the hottest home in hell, our idea is that he will reserve the grand prize for the fellow who puts out poison for a dog. In most of our states have been placed on the books making it a crime such a deed. It should be a sal law.

Man's best friend is and the mere fact that body's dog may not be on some other man's place excuse for placing a dose of poison in food for to eat and thus be slain. The contemptible coward deceiving the poor dumb to believing, in it hung a friend has placed food reach, only to become a tim of internal agony, paralysis, and mortal about the lowest dastard of which we can imagine.

The snide who secretes in food or otherwise to neighbor's pet dog, is the lousiest lout and the spicable dastard.

Each scalawag should be reported to the law authorities and punished plenty for his crime.—GERTRUDE
