Easter Services Attract Throngs

Practically all the churches of this area had special Easter services. The young people of the Community Baptist church started out the day early with devotionals and breakfast at the church basement.

At the morning service special music, and an altar was decorated with lilies and Dutch iris to give an extra touch to the occasion.

The church was filled to capacity to hear "The Meaning of Easter" by Rev. C. E. Dunham, and special music by the choir: "Hallelujah! Christ Is Risen," by Simper and "Now Is Christ Risen," by Schuler. Miss Betti Goldizen sang a request number: "I Know My Redeemer Liveth" (Messiah) by Handel and "Hosanna" by Gramer, sung by O. C. Turley. Mrs. Edwardson of Harbor was accompanist.

Music for next Sunday by the choir will be: "There is a City Built" by Rodney and a solo, "Lord Most Holy," Caesar Frank, by Ethel Pierce.

Azalea Garden Club To Meet

April meeting of the Azalea Garden Club will be held next Thursday afternoon, April 17, having been postponed for a week. This is strictly a business meeting and Mrs. Mabel McVay, president, urges a full attendance as many important matters will be considered.

Delegates to the state federation will be elected. The state convention meets at Bend in June and it is hoped that a large delegation of club members will attend.

The flower show, to be held at the Azalea Festival will be discussed and committees named.

The finance committee chairman, Mrs. Alice Perkins, asks that all committees be present so that details can be arranged for the flower and plant sale to be held during the Azalea Festival.

Matter of starting a fund toward a Woman's club house will be discussed. Other club affairs or the coming year will also come up at this meeting.

Hostesses for the afternoon will be Miss Mary Cavitt, Mrs. Hazel Hendry and Mrs. Marjorie Hoagland.

In last issue it was reported that Harry Carman was called to Spokane, Wash., by death of his mother. This was an error. His father passed away.
