V. F. W. Post Nears End of Building Razing

According to Henry Horst, the local VFW commander, the post's building at Camp White has been reduced to the floor. On part of this floor is a concrete slab, a problem to the group, who would like to escape that siege with a sledge hammer.

"Perhaps we'll have it erected by Christmas time," Henry told the Pilot, Tuesday.

Among the citations which will comprise the Lesson-Sermon is the following from the Bible: "Be not deceived; God is not mocked: for whatsoever a man soweth, that shall he also reap" (Gal. 6:7), together with the following correlative passage from the Christian Science textbook, "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures," by Mary Baker Eddy: "To cause suffering as the result of sin, is the means of destroying sin. Every supposed pleasure in sin will furnish more than its equivalent of pain, until belief in material life and sin is destroyed." (page 6).

In harmony with this injunction representatives of the Seventh Day Adventist church of Brookings will call at the homes and business establishments of the area, in the interest of their annual in-gathering for missions program.

This is a world-wide work conducted along medical, education and evangelical lines.

That this program pays is attested by the fact that during the war, one group of mission-trained natives in the New Hebrides rescued 85 American flyers, shot down over their island.

A choral group, singing the old gospel songs, will be heard in the streets of Brookings, while others will call at the homes in the interest of this work.
