Play Date Set By Azalea Garden Club

"It was a Lovely Meeting," a one-act comedy, is part of the program to be presented by the Azalea Garden Club, Thursday, May 15, at 8 p. m. at the high school gymnasium. The play depicts a typical garden club meeting, planning a flower show.

Members of the play cast are: Mabel McVay, Lucius Axford, Maude Sandbo, Regina Haggerty, Myrtle Hibbard, Helen Christensen, Clara Kerns, Mary Cavitt, and Margaret Tisdale.

Colored slides from the state federation of garden clubs, showing Oregon flowers and gardens will be shown by Mr. and Mrs. Bob Perkins.

Mrs. Betty Seymour and Mrs. Helen Mason will give several musical selections. Mrs. Mason is widely known as an accomplished violinist, and Mrs. Seymour is accomplished on the flute, and will make her first musical appearance in this area.

She was flutist for the Portland Junior Symphony orchestra, and the Raymond Paige orchestra at Pittsburg, heard on the Westinghouse program over the National Broadcasting Co. Mrs. L. D. Horner will accompany the ladies.

The Brookings G. I. dance band will make its first public appearance at the conclusion of the program. Members include Art Benson, Don Vaughn, Robert Smith, Charles Seymour and Tommy James.

Favorite Recipe

Mrs. Frances Bigham recommends the following recipe:

CHOCOLATE ROLL

5 eggs.
5 teaspoons cocoa
5 tablespoons sugar
Beat yolks of eggs and sugar 10 minutes. Add cocoa. Beat until light. Beat whites until they are dry and fold in to above mixture. Spread this in an oiled pan. Bake slowly 20 to 25 minutes at 250 degrees. Turn out on cloth sprinkled with powdered sugar. Roll up in a roll. Let set 10 minutes. Unroll, spread with whipped cream and re-roll. Serve with chocolate sauce.

Chocolate Sauce

2 cups sugar
2 tablespoon cocoa
Pinch of salt
Water to dissolve sugar.
Mix and cook four minutes.

E. H. Reekhan arrived from San Francisco, Thursday, for a ten-day visit with his family in the Harbor district.
