

High School Group To County Play Contest

To compete in the county-wide play contest, Friday night, at Ophir, the local school has prepared a play "The Pest Guest," made up of the following cast:

Margaret Byrne, Howard Groesbeck, Ray Foltz, Irene Johnston, Bob Church, Dianne Burrell, Phyllis Huffmann and Susie Gurske.

The cast was coached by Miss Ruth Woodward, English teacher of the high school.

Local News Items

Members of the senior class of Prospect High School came to the coast last Friday for their "sneak day." They enjoyed swimming in the Chetco and the ocean and became acquainted with some of the local teen-agers. They were accompanied by two of the Prospect teachers, Mrs. Grieve, and Mrs. Frances Akins Parson.

Prospect is on the upper Rogue River, on the Crater Lake hwy.

Mr. and Mrs. H. Dean Loomis have rented the large house on the property they recently purchase from Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Craig, to Mr. and Mrs. Swan of Swan Lumber Co. It was erroneously reported that Mr. and Mrs. Ginther had leased this property. The Ginthers have purchased two acres from Mrs. Missouri Morgan.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Gustafson, Mr. and Mrs. Thor Ask, Mr. and Mrs. Bert Carlson, Ole Ask and Stanley Patterson made a trip to Crater Lake, Sunday. While at the lake they enjoyed a ride on a "snow cat" which a Medford man was demonstrating. They said that while there was lots of snow at the rim, the weather was clear. They returned by way of Kamath Falls.

Mr. and Mrs. Earl Simpson enjoyed a week-end visit from Mrs. Simpson's brother and sister-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. E. McGoughy and son of Portland.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Cooke of San Francisco were recent visitors at the home of Mrs. Cooke's cousins, Mr. and Mrs. John Chilsey, and Pat VanPelt.

Mr. and Mrs. Merle Morgan of Cave Junction have purchased the Clarence Brammer property near Harbor and are now making their home on the property.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Doerr of San Jose left late last week for their home after visiting the Harry Axford home for six days. They were impressed by the community and promised to return as soon as they can.

Mr. and Mrs. Carl Bolin returned after spending the winter months at Glendale, Calif. They both state that it is good to be home.

Mrs. Jessie VanPelt and her daughter, Mrs. Aleena Gochanour spent the week-end here visiting relatives. They returned to their home at Rogue River, Monday.

Mrs. Dorothy Wilber spent the week-end here visiting relatives, returning to Cave Junction Sunday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. Leslie Moore who have been spending several months in Arizona and New Mexico, are spending the week at the home of Dr. and Mrs. J. E.

Stevenson. They extol, as usual, the beauties and advantages of this area.

Because of an aggravated condition in his throat, which has caused him to become partially deaf in the past few weeks, Ed F. Ackley left late yesterday for San Francisco where he will consult a specialist. He told the Pilot he would be home by May 12.

Notice is extended to P. T. A. members, especially those who had various articles, such as blankets, pillows, sheets, pictures, vases, chair, etc. to please bring them to the school this week if possible. The teacher's room will be finished before May 6.

Ed Hoar and Floyd Swearingen were Tuesday business callers at Portland.

Because of conflicts, the regular P-T. A. meeting has been postponed until May 8. Mrs. Yelton and Mrs. Hendricks will attend state P-T. A. meeting at land, closing today, and report back to the local present next week to hear All members are urged reports.
