Question: How may interested individuals or groups help?

Answer: (1) Patronize the library;

(2) Give old and new readable books to the library.

(3) Donate to the library fund which at present is sponsored by the Harbor Community club.

Question: How does the Harbor Community Club expect to finance this project?

Answer: The club plans to raise money by the following means:

(1) Library tea;

(2) Food booth at the Azalea Festival;

(3) Other similar means. We are depending on the community to attend these affairs and assist in raising money.

Question: What immediate aid can be given?

Answer: Any of the following will be acceptable now:

(1) Lumber for book cases;

(2) Donation of labor to build these book cases;

(3) Donation of any sum of money;

(4) Donation of any number of good readable books.

Submitted by the library committee of the Harbor Community Club: Jessie Judkins, Bernice Newton, Helen Hanscam, Mary Cavitt, and Ruth Bathiany, chairman.

May Be Going Within Month

It was indicated that a place had been procured by the club for the library, and that it would be in operation within 30 days.

Boxes, one of which is in the Pilot office, are placed to receive books from those who wish to make donations.

Baptist Church Honors Dunhams

A business and social evening was spent at the Baptist Community church last Wednesday, to honor Rev. and Mrs. Charles E. Dunham, who are retiring from the ministry.

Following the pot luck dinner, enjoyed by a large crowd, a special tree, "grown only in Brookings" was presented the Dunhams. When their blindfolds had been removed, the Duhams gazed in awe at a little fir which was "loaded" with $5 bills. This gift was a token of the appreciation of the community for the services rendered by the Dunhams.

Rev. and Mrs. Dunham have moved to Eugene where they will retire, with the best wishes of the people of this community accompanying them.

At the annual election of officers, the following were named:

Deacons—Dr. J. E. Stevenson, Everett Isenhart, W. G. Hoagland, Walter Jones.

Deaconesses—Mrs. Archie Hendricks, Mrs. Walter Jones, Mrs. Claude Goldizen, Mrs. Edith Moore.

Trustees—Frank George, Clifford Lindskoug, Arthur Pierce, Archie Hendricks, W. G. Hoagland.

Clerk—Jeannette Pierce.

Treasurer—Edith Ott.

Sunday School Supt.—Walter Jones.

Assistant Sunday School Supt.—Frank George.

Flower Committee—Mrs. Powell, Jeanette Pierce, Mrs. W. G. Hoagland and Mrs. Clifford Lindskoug.
