

Langlois News

Mrs. Helen Fain

Program was put on April at Langlois grade school. "The Elephant, horse and two children." The play was directed by the children.

The card party was held last Thursday at Sixes Grange with Mr. and Mrs. Walter Slocum, Mrs. Velma Sabin, Jake White, Otto Heckle and Mr. and Mrs. George Guerin attending.

Ladies of Langlois community church gave a surprise bridal shower Saturday night, honoring Miss Mary Keeney who is to be married in August. Many gifts were received by Miss Keeney with an enjoyable evening being spent.

A surprise baby shower was given for Mrs. Faye DeRosier of Port Orford by Mrs. John Wheeling, Tuesday, with guests meeting at the home of Mrs. Fern Townley. The group went from there to the Wheeling home a complete surprise to Mrs. DeRosier who had been invited to the Wheeling home for the afternoon. Many beautiful and useful gifts were received for the little babe.

Mrs. Joe Everest and two small children were shipping at Bandon Thursday.

Mrs. Will Sabin and grandson, Gary, Mrs. Kenneth Hofsess and Mrs. Kenneth Thompson made a business trip to Coquille Thursday.

Dick Hofsess who has had his leg in a cast for almost a year, is now just wearing an ace bandage on his leg. Dick has been exercising his leg and is able to get some movement in his knee.

Mr. and Mrs. C. B. Warren of Port Orford were dinner guests Sunday of Mr. and Mrs. Ben Burgess. Mr. and Mrs. Warren are leaving for Nashville, Tenn., where they will take over and operate a summer resort, returning this fall, to Port Orford.

Mr. and Mrs. James White and Mrs. Joe Cox were shopping at Coquille, Wednesday.

Mrs. Will Sabin and grandson Mrs. Kenneth Hofsess, Mrs. Friday Phillips and Mrs. Kenneth Thompson motored to Coos Bay Friday to shop.

Mrs. Andy Anderson arrived home Monday after visiting her son and daughter-in-law in California.

Loren Sabin spent the weekend at home from his work at Myrtle Point.

Robert E. Powrie was a Sunday visitor at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Ben Burgess.

Mr. and Mrs. Omar Townley of Port Orford have as their visitor, Mrs. Brown of Claremont, Calif., who is Mrs. Townley's mother. They will spend a few days before continuing to Seattle, Wash.

Art Aldropp left Sunday for Portland on a business trip and is expected back later this week.

The senior class recently went to Lakeside and Coos Bay on their flunk day. At Coos Bay they visited radio station KOOS, the airport, a British lumber ship, and attended a show in the evening. Harry Strain and Jack Donaldson accompanied the class on the trip.

April 18, the boys prepared and served a dinner in honor of the girls volleyball team. William Loshbaugh welcomed the guests, and Martha Creq responded for the girls. The class will be read by Ruth Donaldson, and Ed Sypher read the class prophecy. After the dinner many of the students attended the plays at Port Orford.

The play cast is working diligently to have the play ready for the contest at Ophir next Friday night. The play, directed by Miss Boice, is entitled "Some Women Were Talking." The cast includes Ruth Donaldson, Martha Crew, Marjorie Cope, Ruth Kreutzer, Jean Everest, and Dick Galbraith. The play was presented before the grade school, Wednesday afternoon, and to the public, this Wednesday, April 30.

Howdy Folks: Auto accidents are on the increase. Almost daily we read of tragic cases on the highways.

Such accounts of suffering dampen our ardor as far as writing humor is concerned.

Many drivers are in such a hurry to get into the next county, they keep right on going into the next world.

Too many drivers try to HORN in.

Reckless drivers are seldom reckless long.

Just remember, folks, it's better to be a small pebble beach than a large tombstone.

We'd like to have you remember us the next time you need Gas and Air.

Drive down (safely) and see us, won't you?
