

Smith River News

Mrs. Lottie Flannery passed away, April 30, at her home on the Indian reservation, following a long illness. Funeral services were held Friday afternoon, May 2, from Gushchu Indian mission church, with Rev. E. C. Hicks officiating. Surviving are four daughters and three sons. She was the daughter of the late Ben White, and also leaves a sister, Mrs. Ellen LaFountain, and a brother, William White, at Chiliquin, Ore. Interment was in the cemetery on the reservation under direction of Roeder Funeral Home.

Beginning May 4, and running to May 11, is family week throughout the nation. A week is set aside for home thought and for the purposes of Christian development in the home. Mother's Day will be observed at the local Methodist church, Sunday, with a special sermon by Rev. E. C. Hicks. Special music will be sung by the young people's choir. All are invited to attend church services Sunday to honor mother.

The annual firemen's dance, held Saturday night at the community hall, was a success, with a large crowd present. This is an annual affair, with Smith River firemen. A neat sum was realized for upkeep of the fire equipment. The firemen wish to thank the public for the patronage.

The ladies aid group held its regular meeting Thursday afternoon at the community hall, with vice-president, Agnes Maris, presiding in absence of the president, Jessie Lessard. Following the business session, sandwiches and coffee were served by Eleanor Layman and Mary Penoyar, with a silver offering.

Warren Bailey of Fort Dick was the honor guest at an enjoyable birthday dinner party, May 1, when he celebrated his 72nd birthday, guests were Mr. and Mrs. William Buckner, Barbara and Billie, Mr. and Mrs. Oliver Bailey and son, and Mr. and Mrs. Warren Bailey.

Clair Brogan, Smith River dairyman, has returned to his home here from the Seaside hospital where he has been confined under observation and treatment by his physician. Frank Evans has been doing the farm work during his absence. Mrs. Milmer Nilsen has returned to her home following her release from Seaside hospital. She is convalescing well. Her physician ordered complete rest.

Room Reservation Sought, Festival

James Yelton, housing chairman for the Azalea Festival Association, Tuesday evening at a meeting of the association, issued a plea for everyone in this area, especially the motels, tourist camps, and everyone having extra rooms, to register these with him at once, so he may catalog these rooms to fit any inquires which may come in.

With the widespread publicity being given this festival, it is anticipated that many rooms will be needed for Saturday night, May 31, especially.

Those who may know where to find Mr. Yelton, for convenience, may leave registrations at the Pilot Office.

Gold Beach Won First In County Play Contest

With Bob Church in the hospital with a severe attack of pneumonia, Brookings High lost any chance for the county title last Friday evening at Ophir in the county play contest. Don Vaughn, who filled in at the last moment, did not know his line sufficiently to have that "smooth" action so necessary in good presentation.

Phyllis Huffman, of Brookings, won first place as the best actor.
