

Grades and High School Gave Musical Program

by Susie Gerske

The grades competed in a song contest on May 1st, at the high school gym. The 5th and sixth grade started the program by leading the salute to the Flag, then the "Star Spangled Banner". Next, the girls of the sextette, Mary Lou Berger, Elaine La Clair, Janice March, Nancy Vincent, Georgia Brannan, and Gerrydine Brannan, sang "The Little Dutch Mill." The fifth and sixth grade girls danced the Wooden Shoe Dance, dressed at Dutch girls. Then the whole chorus sang "In an Old Dutch Garden."

The high school girls physical education class executed a Spanish dance called "La Cucuracha," dressed in white blouses and colored skirts. The 8th grade sang "Buy My Tortillas," the 4th grade "Love's Old Sweet song," the 4th and 5th grades "Galway Pipes," the girls being dressed in green and white wearing shamrock aprons. The 3rd grade sang "Indian Lullaby," "Red Wing," and did a war dance. "Sing, Robin Sing" and "Sing When You are Happy" was sung by the 2nd grade, followed by the first grade singing "God Bless America," "Two Little Black Birds," "Oh Susanna," with Sharon Carr singing "Sioux City Sue" supported by the rest of her grade.

Speeches were given at the close of the program by Mr. Horner and Mrs. Georgia Fromm. An art exhibit followed the musical program which was directed by Mrs. L. D. Horner.

by Ruth Hassett

The high school Glee Club gave a music concert April 10th. There were several group songs, special vocal numbers and Mrs. Mason played a violin solo accompanied by Mrs. Horner. The girls wore formal and sarnation corsages. After the singing Mr. Vincent took pictures of the group and following was a reception and dancing, during which time refreshments were sold. It was a very pleasant evening and was enjoyed by everyone.

Brookings lost the track and also the softball game with Gold Beach which was held May 6.

Freshman News

by Margaret Byrne

A meeting was called May 5 to determine how much money the Freshman Class would give the student body. It was voted that we would give five dollars, but that was before it was known everybody would have to pay a tax of twenty-five cents to the student body. The treasurer, Barbara Kinney, gave a report from which it was learned that many had not paid the class dues.

Richard Giddings was back in class or a few days, but has left again.
