dy Poppies To Sold In Area

y Poppy day will soon be s.
veterans, everwhere ask t to contribute for your
in the spirit of defending f against further soliciwhen you wear it, but with the deeper thought ing really helped those left by those of our ranks who over that we may carry he American way and not
some screwball agitator.
may ask why we solicit nite for a poppy. You may cle Sam distributes some tax money to the nation's needy. He does. But in many instances it isn't or it doesn't take special nto consideration—a family ly orphaned children, sub-breaking up as a family nd their inadequate allowapportioned by an imperguaradian—supposing they our children!
rans' oraginzations feel ust step into such unavoidbreaks, and among other their poppy funds go to-the maintenance of excel-omes, homes where fam-re assigned cottages and d with a cottage mother other, who herself, has been im of some peculiar quirk laws.
hat home-like cottage she e family—and other simorphaned children, live as ould want your family to

o Late To Classify

RENT—store space, al-ng quarters available. See ar Hotel, in quire at hotel 11-2

T MISS this week's fivepecial. regular $5.35 House
only $4.89 in five-gallon
t the Chetco Home & Auto Co.

L THE PARTY who took old from Neilan Abbott's nce, Sunday, return cards ep money. Cards are hard lace. No questions asked. o

SALE—Simplicity tractor, about 12 times. Iquire at office. 11-2*

UMATISM
ND ARTHRITIS
s differ as to the merits of OVO. Many users say it has t them relief. If you suffer Rheumatism or Arthritis ot write for literature on OVO from Research Labors, Inc., 408 N. W. 9th, Port-Oregon. paid adv.

live were you unable to do the job, and there they grow up, normal family folks, and from that home go forth to their life's pathway better fitted, possibly, than they could have under any other conditions—go forth as several of them did in the past war, to give their lives that his veterans' home brothers and sisters, and you and I can carry on in our accustomed American way, and not as subjects of dictators.

So don't buy a poppy—really dig down deep, all of you, in appreciation for services well rendered.

Smith River News

The marriage of Katherine "Patsy" Tomasini and Taylor Westbrook of Smith River was held the Methodist parsonage at Reno, Nevada, at 6 p. m., May 12, with Rev. Don Fleming officiating at the ring ceremony. The bride wore a beige talored suit with white orchid corsage. She was attended by Miss Sara Mae Westbrook, sister of the groom. Following a wedding trip the couple returned to Smith River where a reception was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Westbrook, Sunday afternoon and evening where friends gathered to extend congratulations. The new Mrs. Westbrook is daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ezra "Bush" Turner of Gold Beach and a graduate of the Gold Beach Schools. Taylor is the only son of Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Westbrook, and graduate of Del Norte high school. He is a veteran of world war 2, having spent many months in the medical corps of the air force. They will reside in the cottage purchased from Ernest VanZee. He is engaged in logging and trucking here.

Word has been received here by relatives telling of the death of Riley Packard, 83, who died at his home at Vancouver, Wash. on May 15, following a paralytic stroke. He was a former resident of Smith River valley, and followed farming. He was manager of the old Crescent Creamery a number of years. The family moved to Vancouver in 1903 where he made his home. Surviving are the widow, Lydia Haight Packard, two daughters, Mrs. Eva Mills and Mrs. Ada Webber, two sons, Daniel and Melvin, five grandchildren and seven great-grandchildren. He is brother-in-law of Mrs. Eddie Westbrook, Mrs. Everett Woodruff and Fred Haight. Funeral services were held at Vancouver, May 20.

At the Smith River Union school election held Friday afternoon, the following five trustees were elected in the unionized district, with Rowdy Crek: Clarence Westbrook, James Rooney, Leslie Saxelby, Mrs. E. Gibbs Ulrich and Palmer Westbrook. S. Peterson of Klamath, on the high school ballot, received a large majority of votes in this area. there were 58 out to vote.

Sunday, May 25, is Memorial Day. Special services, appropriate for the occasion will be held at the local church with Rev. E. C. Hicks announcing his sermon: "Our Dead Have Passed to Us the Torch of Liberty." Special music will be given by the young peoples choir.

Elbert Miller, employed on McNamara ranch above Smith River Bridge, had the misfortune to cut a deep gash on his foot from broken bottles thrown in the river. Miller was installing irrigation pipes when he stepped on this broken glass. He was rushed to Crescent City where five stitches were taken tc close the wound.

Mrs. Kenneth Cunningham of Washington arrived here the first of the week to visit her mother, Mrs. Frances Ferrill.

Mr. and Mrs. William Buckner motored to Arcata on Friday to board a plane for San Francisco. They returned home Saturday evening driving a 1947 car. They enjoyed the plane trip.

Local News Items

Curry County Pomona Grange met with Chetco Grange Saturday with over 100 Grangers attending from all over the county. As always at Grange affairs, a bountiful dinner was served at noon, following which the meeting was held. Officers of Chetco Grange put on the Fifth or Pomona degree for a large class. The next meeting will be held at Ophir in August.

J. E. Hart. who recently purchased the Mark Wood property, is finding it tough going trying to develop water on the property. To date he has drilled two wells, both dry. With all that water in the Chetco so near, it should be all the water one can seems, to Mr. Hart, that there desire.

Mr. and Mrs. Archie Anderson where they had gone on business, arrived home from Lakeview

Leo Lucas reports that his daughter, Helen Louise, continues to improve; although gradually, but to everyone in the community it sounds encouraging. She and her mother are at San Francisco.

Phil Schroeder and son were visitors here this week-end. They are former residents of this district, but now live at Klamath Falls.

Clyde Hill, who was badly injured at Salem, is home again, thinner, but nevertheless the old pal his friends like to greet.

Mrs. Minnie Bellinger and Mrs. Adela Harden of Medford were visitors here Sunday. While here they visited Mr. and Mrs. A. V. Muchmore.

Zada's Beauty shop has just been enlarge and remodeled, to permit better and speedier service, Zada told the Pilot early this week.

Lowell Marsh leaves Sunday for Wrangell, Alaska, Sunday, where he expects to engage in logging operations. His family expects to follow as soon as he can obtain living quarters.

Karl Foltz has taken the job of delivering papers on the newly-established Journal route. He, an overseas veteran of the late war, should become a familiar sight on his early morning delivery of papers, his route covering both the Brookings and Harbor areas. Because he get pay on the basis of numbers of papers, Karl says he'll welcome any inquiries from people who'd like to have their paper to read at breakfast time.

A recent post card from Mr. and Mrs. Leon R. Abbe, of Connecticut, to her brother, M. S. Brainard, reads: "Tuesday temperature 87, Wednesday, snowing." Mr. Brainard said he pays no heed to her repeated invitations to come back for a visit..

Mr. and Mrs. John Hogan left last week for a couple of week's vacation, visiting among other places, Idaho Falls, their old home.

Gal and Air

By Ed and Mendy

Howdy, Folks: We read about a woman who had been married three times before she was 25 and all her husbands were named William.

* * * * *

Gosh, she was a regular "Bill" Collector.

* * * * *

In some parts of India a man doesn't know his wife until after they are married, but then why single out India.

* * * * *

They say that marriage is an institution, but all men are not ready for an institution.

* * * * *

Of course there is more than one kind of marriage, there's trial, companionate or fight to the finish.

* * * * *

There are changes after marriage. For instance, a man changes his business from the haberdasher to the grocer.

* * * * *

Some men prefer to remain single; others rather knot.

* * *

You'll prefer our Gas and Oil once you have tried it. Ask for it by his full name—and ask any of our customers.

In Person
Veterans Memorial Hall
CRESCENT CITY
Under Auspices of the LIONS CLUB
MAY 27
9 to 1 a. m.
For benefit Crescent Elk playground and C. Y. A.

BOBBY SHERWOOD
AND HIS ORCHESTRA

Chetco Drug Co.
YOUR REXALL STORE
Ready To Serve You Always
T. W. Zenier PHONE 183

BROOKINGS
Texaco Service
Next Door to Brookings Market
BERT DEMOSS
es, Sir! We Give S. & H. Green Stamps, Too!

THE BEST IN REPAIRS ALWAYS!
PRICES CONSISTENT WITH QUALITY!
BROOKINGS GARAGE
Claude Goldizen George Darling
Next Door to Brookings Market

GET TWO JOBS DONE AT ONCE!
3-Row Cultivating & Spraying
isc-type Rototilling, excellent for cover crops,
and General Tractor Work!
ROBERT PATRICK
Middle cabin across from Hanscams Harbor Oregon

CHEVRON
Gas Station
Station No. 5056
Eddie Thornton and
V. A. Mendenhall Jr.