on the many advantages that are available to the blind, and demonstrated the talking machine provided her by the library of Congress for the blind. She receives the talking record of the books and magazines of education and entertainment sent from Sacramento. Only a few of these machines are available at this time, due to production difficulties during war time. At the close of the afternoon, refreshments of sandwiches and coffee were served by Mrs. Lester Ulrich and Mrs. Lily Woodruff.

RIVERS END MAN PASSES

Word was received here telling of the sudden of Maurice Duncan of Rivers End, who passed away at Sacramento, May 20, where he had accompanied Geo. Raymond for a medical checkup with his physician. Mr. Duncan was stricken with a heart attack and passed away Tuesday. Mrs. Duncan, upon receipt of the news left immediately, accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. Eddie Brewer. The Duncans came here several years ago to retire, and built a lovely home overlooking Smith River at River's end. He recently celebrated his 71st birthday, on April 1, when he was honored at a birthday party.

Lyle Addison, of Crescent City, will fill the pulpit at the local Methodist church during the absence of Rev. Hicks, who left on Monday for a three-weeks trip to Portland, Salem, and McMinnville, Ore.

Mr. and Mrs. Marland Rice and son of Albany, Ore., arrived here Friday to visit her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Will Morrison and other relatives. They will also visit the great-grandfather of the little boy, O. M. Rice.

Mrs. Palmer Westbrook was hostess for the Mothers Club at her home last week. She provided a pleasant time for her guests. Refreshments were served at the conclusion of the afternoon to fifteen guests.

Box Social Raises Tidy Sum, Saturday

The box social, to raise funds to aid Bob Hogan in recovery of his eyesight, through surgery, attracted an enthusiastic crowd to the Odd Fellows Hall, Saturday evening, May 24. Funds raised at this events almost reached $350.00.

Staged by the Odd Fellows, the event was comprised of a mock wedding, in addition to the box social which totaled $212 for the evening. To Mrs. Swinney of Harbor went the prize for the box which brought the highest price. Henry Horst, bidding against Wilson Freeman, had more cash, or more cash on his person, for he ventured up to $19.50 for the coveted box.

A public address system, loaned by Archie Diment of the D. & C. Electric and Radio Co., was an aid to the auctioneer, Mickie Gould.

Mrs. Vi Johnson, coming when she was ill, treated the crowd with a whistling solo, accompanied at the piano by Mrs. Grace Edwardson.

Proceeds received at the social were:

Boxes Sold$212.00
Subscriptions turned in by Jack Kinney 115.00
Donations made at social 20.50
Total$357.50

Donations are still being taken by Mike Page at the Chetco Store, and will be added to the sum already raised.

With cataracts destroying the sight of his eyes, this money will be used in an effort, through an operation, to remove this trouble from his vision.

Members of the Odd Fellows lodge asked the Pilot to extend thanks to everyone who had anything to do with this event, and extend a wish that Bob be able to recover his sight. The committee is composed of Jack Kinney, chairman; Mike Page, Lloyd Stefani, Lawrence Myers, Paul Whirry, all of this area.

This committee also told the Pilot that if more money were needed to accomplish this surgery, if that will aid Mr. Hogan, another function of some kind will be staged in the future.

Local News Items
