

Smith River News

Mr. and Mrs. William Hall were honored at a surprise party Thursday evening at the teenage and youth meeting, held at the community hall, in celebration of their wedding anniversary. Attending the affair were the teen-age group, their parents and friends. Games, singing and a social time were enjoyed, with home-made cake and ice cream served at the conclusion of the evening. Mr. and Mrs. Hall were presented a lace table cloth by the group. Mr. Hall is in charge of the teen-age boys and girls who meet every Thursday evening at the community hall.

A large group of friends and relatives attended commencement exercises held at Del Norte high school, Friday evening. Among those who completed four years and received diplomas were Bettie Moore, Ardis Brown, Beverly Ussery, Marian Richards, Luella Markley, and Billie Joe Reynolds.

The ladies aid group held its regular business meeting at the hall Thursday afternoon. Mrs. Una Rawley was in charge of devotions. Each one told of her favorite Bible character and a story of each. Vice-president Agnes Maris presided at the business session. Because of ill health Mrs. Jessie Lessard resigned as president. The nomination committee will select another candidate and report at next meeting. Mrs. Mildred Owen was present at the meeting and gave a talk on Girl Scout work which will be organized here soon. The society will sponsor this group. The troop committee will consist of Beverly Barnum and Ruth Wells. Announcements were made of the dinner to be given at the hall, Wednesday evening. Proceeds will go toward expenses of the young people who will attend institute in July. At the close of the afternoon ice cream and cookies were served by Grace Van Zee, Isabel Buckner, Beverly Barnum and Ruth Wells.

Rev. E. C. Hicks returned to Smith River from an extended visit in Oregon, where he visited his daughter at Salem, and son at Reedsport, and friends in and near Dayton. Regular Services will be held Sunday morning at 11 at the local church.

Mrs. Clarence Hight and Mrs. James Hight were hostesses at a dinner party, Sunday, honoring Fathers Day held at the former's home. Guests were Mr. and Mrs. James Hight and daughters, Miss Myrtle Hight and Fred Hight and Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Hight.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Evans are enjoying a visit with her brother and family, Mr. and Mrs. August Holtorf and daughter at Tule Lake. The Holtorfs are moving to Ukiah following their visit in this area.

Supervisor and Mrs. Fred Haight left the first of the week for San Francisco where Mr. Haight will attend a supervisors convention. They will also visit their daughter and family at Palo Alto before returning home.

Mrs. Ada Hirsch and daughter, Mrs. Edna Ross of Portland are spending several weeks visiting their sisters, Eddie Westbrook and Henrietta Woodruff, and a brother, Fred Haight.
