

Rowly Escapes In Collision

"Sandy" Sandman can Providence for his life a two-car collision near Fire Guard Station, early morning, when the car which he was riding, driven by Edward Rassier, hit the one which was driven by Jerry Sandman's head was run into the windshield.

Many details are lacking concerning the accident, it is said that a tire on one of the cars suddenly went flat as the cars were about to pass, throwing them into each other.

Sandman cut his throat seriously withdrawing from the hole in the windshield. At the time the article was written, both cars badly damaged, still remained at the site, mute evidence of the narrow escapes from sudden death.

Will Sell 'Fashion Frocks' In Brookings District

Mrs. Wm. Ward of Ward's Clothing Store, has been recently appointed as local agent for "Fashion Frocks, Inc., world's largest dress manufacturers, she told the Pilot early this week.

This concern, selling direct to the customer, through agents, has many former customers in this area. People are urged to call on Mrs. Ward, says an advertising elsewhere in this issue.

Former Resident Passes In Calif.

Word has been received here of the death of Mrs. Edith Moore, wife of the late Frank Moore, who, for many years, made their home on a ranch about six miles up the Chetco River.

Born, April 2, 1863, in Iowa, Mrs. Moore made her home with a sister-in-law, Mrs. Agnes McKinsey, at St. Helena, Calif. She died July 9, the letter stated.

She will be laid to rest near her first home where she and her husband and several children were buried.

Mrs. Moore was always well liked in this community. She left here about 1932.

Local News Items

Mr. and Mrs. Harold C. Smades, son-in-law and daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Pete Lesmeister, were visitors in this area last week and returned to their home at Fresno Saturday morning. Mrs. Leo (Dorothy) Garabedian, another daughter of the Lesmeisters, with her infant son, also arrived from Fresno Sunday, to spend a month with her parents.

Jack Kaiser has been granted his real estate salesman's license by the state of Oregon, and has gone to work for the Lesmeister agency, to care for the real estate end of the agency. In so doing, more time will be left to Mr. Lesmeister to care for his rapidly expanding insurance business.

Henry Horst, one of the more vociferous advocates of the outdoors via Chetco Rod & Gun club, avers he caught an 18 1/4-inch cut-throat trout in the Chetco at Tide Rock. Skein eggs flavored with Five Brothers, is said to have been the successful lure. Mrs. Horst managed one a bit smaller, the same trip, which succumbed to a small fly she was casting, unflavored.

Mr. and Mrs. Al Hiland of San Francisco left Sunday after a visit with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Hiland. Mr. and Mrs. E. Wheeler of Dunsmuir, Calif., were visitors the last week at the same home.
