

Festival Princess Was Wed, Saturday

LANGLOIS—At a simple ceremony, Saturday evening, Miss Betty Storm and Lowell J. Kreutzer were united in marriage at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Louis Kreutzer, parts of the groom. The ceremony was performed by Rev. E. J. Stubbs of the Bandon Baptist church.

The bride wore a blue suit with white accessories, and carried a bouquet of gardenias and rose buds. The living room of the Kreutzer home was decorated with lilies and pink gladiolus.

Attending the bride and groom were Miss Beulah Kreutzer, and Lloyd Kreutzer, sister and brother of the groom. Present at the ceremony were Mrs. Marie Cope, mother of the bride, William Storm, father of the bride, Mr. and Mrs. Phillip Cope and family, Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Farrier, Mr. and Mrs. Ellsworth Davies and Mrs. Katie Vanort of Bandon, Mr. and Mrs. Isham Storm, Norman Storm, Ray Longnecker, Darrell Holycross, Maynard Titus, Ruth, Anna and Lloyd Kreutzer. Following a short honeymoon to the south, the young Driver of the car in the ditch failed to yield the right-of-way, even to an ambulance. He ran through a plainly visible stop sign, directly into the path of the ambulance, and was knocked across the road. Driver was killed, and a passenger was injured. Emergency vehicles always have the right-of-way—but at other times, too, it pays to be courteous at intersections. Failure to grant right-of-way ranked second as a cause of motor vehicle deaths in 1946. National Conservation Bureau advises: when in doubt, always yield the right-of-way.

couple will make their home at the old Kreutzer place.

Popular in this area where she was maid of honor in the Azalea Festival court, Mrs. Kreutzer surprised even her most intimate friends by this marriage. However, she did confide at the queen's dance, that she was expecting her "boy friend" and a number of the local swain had few dances with her.

Howdy, Folks: A pretty fair proof that Money talks is in the fact that women's heads appear on coins.

When money talks, everybody listens.

Our neighbor, Chad, says that money works two ways. It talks and it stops talk.

The kind of money that talks most is hush money.

One lady remarked to us the other day that a girl marries to make her dream come through.

While on the subject of money, we could say that pin money doesn't amount to much unless the pin is a diamond pin.

And of course, the expression: "Dollars to Doughnuts," doesn't carry the odds its used to.
