"Romance of the Highway," broadcast over the Mutual Network, and station KIEM, by Commander Scott for Greyhound, will include southwestern Oregon, especially south Curry, Sunday morning, August 10, it was learned yesterday.

With Azalea State Park, the Azalea Festival and Lily Blossom Week needing publicity for the next year's affairs, certainly this should give this area publicity that will prove invaluable.

Followers of Commander Scott's broadcasts know his unique and pleasing style of story-telling, and no doubt these same listeners will await with much anticipation this forthcoming broadcast.

Commander Scott gathers his material by way of radio bus, which he makes excursions about the nation, especially the Pacific coast, to relate to his millions of listeners each Sunday morning.

Expected to come in for considerable mention will be Azalea State park, shown above, which has already gained much in national popularity.

The 1948 Azalea Festival, to be headed by Bob Perkins, will attract more next year than visited the affair this year. While there may not be the emphasis on the 1948 festival so as not to detract any from the Lily Week which will follow in two months, the coming festival will again feature the barbecue which has become traditional over Oregon.

Developments will be published from time to time in these columns, concerning both events. Residents of this area are urged, however, to listen to Commander Scott, Sunday, August 10.

To Whom It May Concern:

If the person, or persons, feel so ambitious to work with the woodcutting tools stolen from me, then I ask: "Will you contact me at [redacted] and I will give you a woodcutting job from [redacted] on, at $6.00 per cord, with no charge made."

Also, since sugar is no longer rationed, 20 pounds, along with the three boxes of ammunition, taken from the cabin could be conveniently utilized by me at this time.

GRAHAM BREAD

1 medium sized potato, cooked sieved and water cooked in; add enough milk to make 1 quart liquid.

1/2 cup sugar or honey.

1/2 tablespoons salt.

2 cups coarse graham flour.

6 tablespoons salad oil or melted shortening

Add 2 yeast cakes softened in war water.

Flour to make good pliable dough.

Let rise about 1 hour and mold into loaves and let rise about 3/4 of an hour. Bake in moderate oven. Makes four loaves.
