Local News Items

Mr. and Mrs. Joe Berger and three children will leave Mt. Vernon, Wash., Sunday and will be here early next week or a visit.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Low entertained a group of friends on the beach Tuesday evening at a steak fry.

Ed Farmer general manager of West Coast Bulb Growers, of Crescent City, was a brief visitor in this area Wednesday. Ed now has the cast removed from his leg, hurt about two months ago in this area, but is still unable to walk without crutches.

Howard James, while returning with his family, Tuesday evening, from Medford, had quite an experience, he told the Pilot.

Near Hiouchi bridge, after turning onto the Smith River cutoff, he saw, in the darkness off to side of his car lights, something loaping down the road. Traveling about 50, the family speculated on the identity of the animal. Just about even with the critter, it suddenly turned right in to the lights and headed for the car—a huge brown bear. "My hair stood on end," Howard confided, "and my family was about sick from fear as we missed that fella but a scant inch."

Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Wright returned from Oakridge where they had been for post three weeks on business. Their granddaughter, Shirley Wright, accompanied them home for a visit.

Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Hanscam Jr. are parents of an 8 lb., 5 oz., son, born at Seaside hospital, July 30. They have named the young man Charles Eugene. Mr. Hanscam brought his wife and son home Sunday.

L. G. Stafford celebrated his 78th birthday last week with a surprise party given him by several of his neighbors. A birthday cake was brought by Mrs. Carl Wallin. Mr. Stafford is still an active man and works every day like a much younger man.

Mike Hall arrived unexpectedly last week for a visit with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Hall. Mike, who spent some time here last summer, will remain here until time to return to LaMars, Iowa, where he is attending Western Union College.

Mr. and Mrs. Martin Oberg, Mrs. Bess Fox, Miss Nell Fox, Mr. and Mrs. Garret Fox and bay, and Dick Griffith are vacationing at the summer home of the late Mrs. Helen Richards on the Upper Chetco. They are all from San Francisco and Berkeley, Calif.

Mrs. Roberta Chapman was taken to the Gold Beach hospital the latter part of the week in a very serious condition. Her father, Robert Childers, flew up from Hobbs, New Mexico, to be with her.

If you see a group of people around a car in Harbor, it is likely to be the car belonging to Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Stoller, with their two-months-old pet deer, "Baby," in it. "Baby" loves to ride and is as tame as a dog or kitten.

Mr. and Mrs. George Anderson, Mrs. Fred Reiling and Mrs. Elmer Hanscam Sr. left Monday for Eugene for a medical check-up for Mr. Anderson.

Tourists "Missed" Gold Beach, Mon.

Bert DeMoss, dispenser of all Texaco products in the town of Brookings, had a surprise, Monday when a couple of tourists stopped at his station, inquiring: "What town is this?"

"Brookings, sir," said genial Bert as he started cleaning the windshield, waiting for the man to ask his order.

"Where's Gold Beach?" was the next question hurled at Bert as he was nearing a clean windshield.

"Which way did you come?" Bert was trying to get information so he could talk intelligently in his next answers.

"We came from the north," the tourists obliged.

"Well, you went through Gold Beach, 38 miles back," Bert was more puzzled than ever. "Don't you remember crossing the Rogue River bridge?" "Nope, but, say, I do remember crossing Pistol River up the road," was the reply. Bert serviced the car and the tourists sat in the car looking puzzled—"Well, if all Gold Beach is, no wonder missed it."

Howdy, Folks: Lloyd Stefani, who operates the tonsorial parlors across the street, says it's been a long time since he overhauled a GI hair cut.

Didn't the army certainly take a load off some of the boys' minds when they reduced some of those beautiful marcel to GI haircuts?

.....
Then it was a case of hair today and gone tomorrow.

.....
But our good friend, Lloyd, puts them back in shape.

.....
It takes guys like Chet Stoakes to get the barber's goat. All these guys need to do is walk in the barber shop, get in front of the mirror, straighten their ties and then walk out.

.....
If we cared to make a pun about the subject, we might say that with a bald head there is no parting and wying there.

.....
Also, we'd like to say that if you'll let us sell you our gas and air, it will be a profitable transaction.
