Marriage vows were exchanged by Miss Marie Ulrich of Oakland and Louis Broman, of Walnut Creek at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Lester Ulrich, Saturday evening, at a 5 o'clock ceremony with Rev. E. C. Hicks officiating.

Preceding the ceremony Miss Betty Moore sang "O Promise Me." The bride was given in marriage by her father, and wore an aqua suit with orchid corsage. She was attended by Mrs. Esther Meyers, as matron of honor, who wore brown afternoon frock with orchid corsage. The groom was attended by his brother-in-law, Carl Kober as best man.

The Ulrich home was decorated in white summer flowers. The fireplace and mantle were decorated with a spiral of white gladiolus and tall tapers, with greenery and white feathery flowers making a pretty background. Following the marriage rites a semi-buffet dinner was served. The bride's table, covered with a white linen cloth, centered with crystal baskets of white Japanese anemones and set in white china and crystal.

The three-tier bride's cake, baked and decorated by Mrs. Lewis Ulrich, was cut by the bride and groom.

Mrs. Broman is a graduate of Del Norte High School and San Francisco State College and has been employed in office work at Oakland. Mr. Broman is employed as contractor estimator at San Francisco. Following the wedding trip, the newlyweds will reside at Walnut Creek.

Among those present at the wedding were Mr. and Mrs. Russell Taft and son, Franklin, Mrs. John McWilliams of Vallejo, Mr. and Mrs. Norman Crowdace and daughter of San Francisco, Mr. and Mrs. Karl Kober, Mr. and Mrs. Louis Meyers of Oakland, Mr. and Mrs. Mike Burns and son, Mrs. Christina Caltoft of Eureka, Mr. and Mrs. John Smith of Crescent City, Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Ulrich and sons, Carl and Jackie, Mr. and Mrs. Jas Hight, Miss Betty Moore, Rev. E. C. Hicks, Mr. and Mrs. Lester Ulrich and Mr. and Mrs. Broman.

Mr. and Mrs. Ulrich accompanied the newlyweds to Eureka Sunday morning where they had planned to take a plane to Oakland, but due to the heavy fog the plane did not leave, so the couple took the bus.

Guests at the home of O. M. Rice and daughter, Elma, are his brother-in-law, J. N. Otto and two daughters, Mrs. ClaraBelle Knapman and Mrs. Pearl Young of Sequim, Wash. Mr. Otto is a former resident of Del Norte county, where he resided at Requir for several years and will be remembered by many of the older people of the valley.

O. M. Rice is enjoying a visit with his brother, George, of Alameda. Mr. Rice was accompanied by Mrs. Anna Winslow, a close friend of the Rice family.

Rev. E. C. Hicks is enjoying a visit from his brother and sister-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. John Hicks of Oklahoma, who arrived Wednesday evening by bus.
