

Smith River

Smith River Womans club will hold its first meeting of the fall season Friday afternoon, Sept. 12, at 2:30 at the community hall. Club President Maude Luick will preside. All ladies of the community are invited to attend this meeting, following the business session. Mrs. Vance Bolick who is art chairman has planned for the afternoon program, with a mother-daughter exhibit featuring the art work of Mrs. C. Kors, and daughter, Miss Jane, both artists from Kansas City, who will exhibit paintings and crayon drawings, made here during their visit with a sister, Mrs. Vance Bolick.

Lake Earl Grange met in regular session Thursday evening at the hall in Fort Dick. Master Ray Robison was in charge. The ladies degree team put on the third and fourth degrees for a class of candidates at an impressive ceremony. Wm. Buckner was installed as overseer for the remainder of the year. A vote of thanks was given Louis Peterson and his committee in making the Grange booth at the fair. The booth took first prize. During lecture hour Violet Hinkle read several interesting letters from Star Scout Gordon Miller who is attending the Scout Jamboree in France. He will arrive home on Sept. 6. Following the business session a social time was enjoyed with pot luck supper being served in the banquet room.

Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Hight and friends, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Siegle of Oakland, have returned from a two weeks vacation trip to Canada. They report having had an enjoyable trip and saw many interesting places.

Mr. and Mrs. R. D. Rawley and daughter, Dorothy, returned Tuesday from Medford, where they spent the week-end on a combined business and pleasure trip.

Carlton Bosch who was seriously injured several months ago while working in the logging camp on North Bank of Smith River, has been confined to seaside Hospital, has returned to his home here. He is reported recovering satisfactorily.

Smith River School opened on Sept. 2, with an enrollment of 75. Mrs. Ina Johnson, principal, has charge of the first and second grades; Mrs. Juanita Harris will teach third, fourth and fifth grades and Mrs. Starr Bumby will have the sixth, seventh and eighth grades. Mrs. Betty Hancock will drive the school bus and pick up children to the Oregon line north, and in the Rowdy Creek district to Smith River Bridge.

Mr. and Mrs. Guy Remme of Dayton, Oregon, were brief visitors of Rev. E. C. Hicks last Friday morning. The Remmes, members of the Dayton Evangelical church, called on their old minister. They left for Brookings to visit other former Dayton people.

Local News Items

Miss Louise Howie returned to San Francisco last week after visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Schaal for several days. She is employed by the California State Department of Industrial Relations. Other recent house guests at the same home were Mrs. Schaal's sister, Mrs. Ada Vancent of San Francisco; and their son, Clarence Howie, of Klamath Falls.

Miss Barbara Bates and Mrs. Vada McComb and two children left last week after visiting the two ladies' parents, Mr. and Mrs. Loyal Bates. Miss Bates, who attended school here last year, is attending Henley High at Klamath Falls and is staying with her sister and family.

Mrs. Carol Lee Freeman, Miss Rosie Potocnick and Jim Carson with members of their families spent the first of the week at Gold Beach where they brought suit against an insurance company for damages and medical costs of an auto accident near Smith River about a year ago, when D. L. O'Neil, Brookings electrician, hit them at a corner near town.

Dr. and Mrs. P. P. Sandbeck arrived from Santa Fe, N. Mex., last week, and plan to make their permanent home here. They were here last year for a time when they bought property up the Chetco.

Scoutmaster John Ginther did not care for the write-up of the county fair, in the Curry County Reporter, in which credit was given to Col. W. S. Hand of Port Orford, and his boy scouts for the fine work the local scouts did at the fair. The Brookings scouts were the only scouts from any community in the county, and the area should swell with pride at the work they performed during the fair. Credit properly belongs to John Ginther, and to the local boys who conducted themselves in manner of men.

If most of us feel tired after an eight-hour day of work, how would you like this schedule: up at 5:30 to do the chores about the small farm, start hiking five miles before seven to reach Harbor where you are picked up for a day's work in the lilies. Face a five-mile hike home from Harbor after a full eight hours field work, with evening chores still facing you, plus carrying water and chopping wood? That is the schedule of a day's living for Mrs. Lucile Jackson, whose home is past Jack's Creek Bridge, on south bank road. Mrs. Jackson doesn't enjoy that any more than anyone else, but, as she says, she has to do something. Mr. Jackson has been unable to work for some time as his eyes have been badly infected and he had to make a trip to San Francisco to consult a specialist. He is now staying with his son at Douglas Park, Calif.

Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Hanscam Sr. took Mervin to Eugene Sunday where both young men will be students at University of Oregon. Mr. and Mrs. Hanscam will visit their two daughters, Mrs. Reeves Taylor and Mrs. Thelma Pettygrew. They returned home Wednesday.

Mrs. Jack Wright and daughter, Mrs. O. J. Bodie, are here, following a trip to Portland.
