

Leaving To College

Goldizen left by bus for University of Oregon in the college of arts and sciences, to major in anthropology which has been his hobby since he was a young boy. Kessler leaves later for Corvallis where he will enroll in industrial arts at Oregon State College. Rawlings, upperclassman at Oregon State College, leaves for Corvallis to enroll. He is son of Mrs. O. C. Rawlings. Hanscam has already enrolled at the University of Oregon where he is a senior. Abbott, upper classman at Oregon State, leaves soon to enroll at the same school. Moore is to enroll at Oregon College of Education for her second year.

Scouts Honored Parting Member

Teen Boy Scouts held a "good-bye" party at the Mill Tuesday evening for Gene who had been junior assistant-master for the past year and a half.

While this item is not to appear on scout records, it was told that kerosene was given to the scouts to enable them to start a fire. Because many of the ambitious boys wanted a "huge" bonfire, wood was piled in huge proportions that it was impossible to get close enough to roast wieners over the coals. However, hungry boys didn't mind a little matter like that, and the scouts imagined they had been boiled.

The party ended by a night cliff-climbing expedition that was plenty rugged on everyone.

Favorite Recipe

Mrs. Kay Kessler submits her favorite recipe this week:
TUNA CASSEROLE
Cook 1/2 package noodles, then add one can of tun fish, and one can of mushroom soup. Sprinkle bread crumbs on top of the casserole and brown it in the oven.
