Mr. and Mrs. Wm. R. Barton are the parents of a 6 lb., 9-oz. daughter, born early Sunday at Seaside hospital. They have named the young miss Vicki Lynn. One would hesitate predicting the future of the young lady, but when they realize that her great-grandmother, Goldie V. Smith, is postmaster at Brookings, her paternal grandmother, Goldie Swearingen, is clerk at the same office; her great-great-aunt, Harriet E. Payne is Harbor postmaster and her maternal grandmother, Kathryn Reekman, is clerk at that office, her destiny will have something to do with the mail (male).

Recent house guests of Mr. and Mrs. George Baxter were Apostle John A. Widstoe, and his wife of Salt Lake City, President and Mrs. German E. Ellsworth and Elder Griffith of the Northern California Mission from San Francisco. Mr. Baxter is the president of the local church of Latter Day Saints. Mr. and Mrs. Baxter also had as recent dinner guests, President Henry E. Williams, district manager, and his wife, two elders and two lady missionaries, all of Eureka, and Elders John Lott and Dale Cozier of Crescent City. Most of the group enjoyed a huckleberry trip the next day.

Mr. and Mrs. John Mello have had as recent house guests his brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. Paul Fincher of San Francisco, and Mr. and Mrs. Harry Holliday of Richmond, where Mr. Holliday is sergeant on the police force. The group made a trip to Crater Lake while here as well as taking in the ocean and river fishing.

Friends here have received announcements telling of the birth of twins to Mr. and Mrs. Chester Jackson, of Reedsport, at the Kaiser hospital, North Bend, on Sept. 8. The babies are Chester III, eight pounds and 11 ounces, and Kathie Lee, four pounds and 15 ounces. Mr. Jackson was a well-known Harbor resident, the family formerly owning the now Ellis Garcia place on Jacks Creek.

Mrs. Emil Edwardson returned last week from several weeks trip which took her to Ashland and then to Sacramento where she visited her father.

Topaz Rebekah Lodge Met Tuesday Evening

The first September meeting of Topaz Rebekah lodge was held Tuesday evening at the IOOF hall, with Noble Grand Beth Simon presiding.

Rita Tierce reported that part of the linoleum for the kitchen had arrived and that curtains had been hemmed by Millie Peterson, ready to hang. It was decided to have a work party this Friday, Sept. 19, to clean the main hall. All Rebekahs who can come at this time are asked to come at 9:30 a. m. with something for pit luck.

Agnes Darger and Mercedes Phillips were in charge of the "Good of the Order" and they held a practice of some of the Rebekah work, then conducted a "What's the Name of That Song" contest. Winners of the contest were Mildred Drake, Beth Simon and Adelia Hassett.

Refreshments of sandwiches, olives, and coffee were served by Adelia Hassett, Mildred Drake, Mary Hassett and Lilly Coffman.
