

Manual Traianing Tools Delivered to School

The much needed mitre-box, ordered by the Rotary Club in the tools given to start the course in the local school, arrived Saturday and was immediately delivered to the manual training instructor.

The complete inventory of the tools includes hammers, saws, squares, brace and bits, and basic tools that may be found in a carpenter's kit, for ten pupils. In filling the order, much of the tools ordered were back-ordered, with the mitre-box being th last to arrive here.

Garden Club Yearbook Ready For Publication

Awaiting approval of the committee in charge, the 1947-48 yearbook of Azalea Garden Club is in type at the Pilot office.

Last year the local club won second prize in Oregon for its last year's book. This year the club wishes to take honor. In an attempt to accomplish this, the committee has taken the covers to hand tint the azaleas on the cover this year is 47.5 mills, lower than last year, and even lower than first thought on the budget just passed.

The local rural fire district levy is 3.8 mills, according to the same release. The general county levy is 12.2 mills.

World Series Attracts Plenty Local Interest

"Those Bums—they haven't a chance!" Such was the opinion of the entire sports world, but such was not the case—not in 1947.

After the Yankees had won the first two games and went to Brooklyn to "wind up the series" the Bums reversed the opinion, and that quickly, by evening the count.

Saturday and Sunday's game left the series still even, with the championship settled Monday New York won the series.
