

Smith River News

The chrysanthemum show and tea, sponsored by the garden committee of the Smith River Womens Club, held Friday afternoon at the community hall, was a success. Mrs. Mabel Maris, who was chairman, was ably assisted by Zelma Maris, Frances Westbrook, Terry Ulrich, Betsy Evans, June Brogan, Stella Haight, Grace VanZee and Helen Dunham. Co-hostesses for the afternoon were Mrs. Ethel Moss and Mrs. Nora Jacobson. The lace-covered table was attractive with an arrangement of lavender chrysanthemums with tall green tapers in crystal holders, arranged by the hostesses. The mantle was attractive with a shadow box type rama with a beautiful bronze chrysanthemum arrangement, arranged by Mrs. Dunham. Many varieties of double, single, and pompoms were arranged in pottery bowls and low containers on the long tables in the banquet room.

Club president, Maude Luick, president at a short business session, with meeting opening with a flag salute. Chairman of the well-baby conference, Ethel Good-lin, gave a report of the recent meeting hld at Crscent City with Dr. Springer Brooks of the state health department. Plans are being made to re-organize these baby conferences. The colub donated to buy a volleyball for the teen-age group.

Alyce Bolick, art chairman, reported that plans are being made for housing of art class here during the summer months.

The afternoon was spent viewing the many varieties of chrysanthemums, from many local gardens. Tea and cookies were served at the close of the afternoon. Maude Luick and Eleanor Layman presided at the tea table. Many were present from Brookings, Harbor, Crescent City and locally. Bouquets were sold at the close, and many plants and spring bulbs were disposed of, netting the club a tidy sum.

Mrs. Eva Hill has received word that her aged sister, Mrs. Linnie Lockwood, of Denmark, Ore., who recently celebrated her 85th birthday, underwent a major operation at Good Samaritan hospital, Portland, and is recovering satisfactorily, able to sit up some each day.

Mr. and Mrs. William Buckner and family have moved to their new two-story house, which has been under construction for many months at their island home across Smith River. This property joins the Bailey Bros. ranch. The Buckner home here has been leased to Mr. and Mrs. Dale Shannon, employees at the Chevrolet garage.

Mrs. Lily Woodruff has returned home from a visit with relatives and friends at Vancouver, Victoria and Portland. She reports an enjoyable trip.

Rev. E. C. Hicks, who has been seriously ill for several days is recovering rapidly and is able to sit up for a few hours each day. It will be some time before he will be able to occupy the pulpit at the local church.

Mrs. Wayne Blagdon is convalescing at her home here following a threatened attack of pneumonia, which confined her to bed several days.

Home Extension Unit Organized

Late last week, the Chetco extension Unit was organized by Mrs. Aldene Roberts, home demonstration agent, when Mrs. Lloyd Harbin was named president; Mrs. Verne Asche, vice-president and Mrs. Vic Reynolds, secretary.

Open to all women of this area these meetings will feature the art of home-making in all its phases. Balanced diet was the topic of the first meeting, when pot luck lunch was enjoyed.

Fish cookery, dress-making and home planning are a few of the topics for future meetings.

Drier Arrives At Service Laundry

After being held up for several weeks by failure of his drier to arrive, C. A. MacKenzie went ahead and opened his self-service without it. Tuesday, however, the drier arrived, but Mr. MacKenzie faced another problem—he had to remove a section of the wall in order to get the appliance inside—but he is right on doing business.
