Sunday school at 9:45 a. m.
Church Service, 11:00 a. m.
Evening Service, 7:45 p. m.
Subject for the sermon, Sunday morning is "Is Christianity of God or of Man?" It is vital to a thinking man. Have the people of the past 6000 years believed in vain in Christianity? Has Christianity stood the test of the ages? These are some of the questions which will be answered.

The evening service will be given over to singing of familiar hymns, of your choice.

A special notice to the young people: The organizing of the Young Peoples Society will take place at the church on the evening of Nov. 2 at 6:30 p. m. We hope a great number will make use of this opportunity.

"Probation After Death" is the subject of the Lesson-Sermon in all churches of Christ, Scientist, on Sunday, October 26.

The Golden Text is "The hour is coming, and now is, when the dead shall hear the voice of the Son of God; and they that hear shall live" (John 5:25).

Among the citations which comprise the Lesson-Sermon is the following from the Bible: "Blessed are they that do his commandments, that they may have the right to the tree of life, and may enter in through the gates into the city" (Rev. 22:14), together with the following correlative passage from the Christian Science textbook, "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures," by Mary Baker Eddy: "It is only a question of time when they shall all know Me (God) from the least of them unto the greatest." (page 242).

"Profs" Have Formed 100 Per Cent Club

Charter members of the 100% Club, Guthrie, Ginther and Hampton are "oiling up" their "shooting iron" and carefully "tucking away" their "30-03" shells in anticipation of the 1948 hunting season.

Their record this year—Each male member of the Brookings School teaching staff "got his buck." Can any club, Rod and Gun, or otherwise, equal this record—100% lucky?

The school might consider a course in "Shooting the buck" and not "passing the buck."

Photographic Sittings Will Be Made Locally

Margarethe Aune Tisdale, who for years created fine portraiture for an extensive western clientele will make a limited number of sittings over the holidays at the home of Ralph Vincent.

She will be associated with Ralph Vincent, who headed the photographic department of the Oregon Journal for 21 years.

Appointments for these sittings may be made at Vincent's Gift Shop.

Howdy, Folks: Val's up at the veterans hospital, Portland, to have some hemstitching done on his hernia, so that he can really come back and help us out of this traffic jam. Val's been kinda on the weak list for a time.

Didja notice the black bow tie Ed is wearing these days? Didja know that that tie kept him from having a sore throat? Yes, we mean his throat.

It was this way: Chad, who also wears the black ties, quit leaving them lie around, so Ed, who kept his shirt open, had to fasten the collar—and he had to go out and buy one.

Those black ties intrigue us. Chad without one would be just like looking at Durante without that snozzola. We think we'll become just like Chad in this respect.

Chad's like us, only he doesn't sell gas and air—his stuff is for a different kind of carburetor—but good, too. See us for the best in the west.

"Speed Pads" are swell for that window cleaning job. See 'em, use 'em and you'll always buy 'em—and we sell 'em.
