

Is The Way They Did It Back In 1906," Modern U. of O. Students Learn

UNIVERSITY OF OREGON, Eugene, November 17 (Special to the Pilot)—Homecoming back in 1906 when Virgil Earl was a student, was on a smaller scale than now, but it was held with the "good old Oregon spirit," the former Oregon dean of men tells members of the 1947 Homecoming committee. Dean Earl shows his scrapbook, with mementoes of early Homecoming to 1947 Homecoming Hostess Zata Sinclair, Lebanon; Morven Thomas, Portland, Homecoming chairman; and Bill Andrews, Grans Pass, publicity chairman. Theme of the Homecoming this year is "Return, Recall, Recapture—Oregon Spirit." U. of O. Photograph.

The girls have completed their tenderfoot rank and were presented their pins at an impressive candle-light ceremony attended by their parents and friends and Boy Scout Troop No. 4 with their Leader, Gordon Wells. To become a tenderfoot Scout, the girl must attend four meetings and learn the Scout Oath and Promise. Mrs. Owen gave a talk on Girl Scout Organization which is 35 years old this year. Assistant Leaders are Alyce Bodick and Martha Vanderhorst. Troop committee chairmen are Beverly Barnum, Ruth Wells, Ina Johnson, Isabel Buckner and Betty McClish. The following received their tenderfoot pins: Evalyn Thomas, Barbara Buckner, Nadine Lehmkuhl, Katie Rooney, Dorothy Rowley, Sheila Mathews, Opal Nelson, Phyllis Bateman, Sandra Elfman. Two girls, Evelyn Samuelson and Dietta Fronet recently joined and will receive their pins later.

Following the Scout session, Community singing, was enjoyed by all with Mrs. Una Rowley, song leader, accompanied at the piano by Martha Vanderhorst. Sandwiches, cookies and cider, was served to conclude the evening.

The O. K. Rubber Welders have announced they'll be closed Fri. and Sat. after Thanksgiving.

ARE YOU JUST A PLAYTHING OF NATURE?

Nature may endow you with breathtaking beauty, a lovely curvaceous figure. She may bestow gifts on you that make you a brilliant actress, a leader in your class at college, sought after at dances, or a charming wife and mother.

Yes, Nature may do all this. And yet you may find your face mockingly slapped if you suffer these distressing symptoms, which so many unfortunate girls and women do.

Something You Should Not Joke About!

So if female functional monthly disturbances are causing you to suffer from pain, nervous distress and feel weak, restless, so cranky and irritable that you almost turn into a 'she-devil'—on such days—THIS IS SOMETHING YOU SHOULDN'T JOKE ABOUT. Start right away—try Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound to relieve such symptoms. It's famous for this purpose. And don't forget—Pinkham's Compound DOES MORE than relieve such monthly pain. This great medicine ALSO relieves accompanying nervous tension, irritability, those tired-out, mean 'pick-on-everyone' feelings—when due to this cause. Taken regularly throught the month—Pinkham's Compound helps build up resistance against such distress—a very sensible thing to do. Just see if you, too, don't remarkably benefit! All drugstores.

U. of O. Homecoming Set For Friday!

UNIVERSITY OF OREGON, Eugene, November 17—A faculty-alumni mix on Friday night, Nov. 21, preceding the traditional Oregon-Oregon State football game will set the pace for the university's 31st annual Homecoming.

Plans for the 1947 Homecoming will put particular emphasis on alumni participation, according to student chairman Morven Thomas, Portland. Saturday night programs are being planned by all living organizations for special entertainment of alumni. Housing for visiting alumni is a special project of the week-end, Thomas said. A list of private rooms is being compiled by the committee. Alumni interested in housing are asked to write to the Homecoming committee, care alumni office, Friendly hall, campus.

I WRITE As I See It

By Barton W. Marsh

For eleven months this column has considered topics that seldom appear in local newspapers. Some of our readers have rejected our position on several of the themes considered, others have mildly disagreed, but have expressed that the articles were provocative of thought, and were interesting. Others have expressed their appreciation of the column and have said that they would miss it, should it be discontinued. We are deeply grateful for each and every comment and criticism, for or against, that have come

For some time in the future, our time will be fully occupied with other matters, and we fear we will be unable to give the column the attentions which we consider it demands. We especially extend to Mr. Dewey Akers, editor and publisher of the Pilot, our gratitude for his courtesy and frequent expressions of appreciation. We consider Brookings and Harbor fortunate indeed in having a newspaper of such moral standard and progressive spirit as is maintained in the Pilot by Mr. Akers.

We will likely be away from this section for several months, busy here and there. We salute you and say, Good By, until we meet again. May the blessing of heaven be upon you.

I REPRESENT YOUR BUSINESS—MANAGED. TELEPHONE COMPANY

MISS JOY PETERSON, Service Representative

Joy Peterson has a knack for meeting the public with a smile and solving their telephone problem so that a company work order can be made up. Joy is typical of the telephone Service Representatives who daily help our customers with new orders, location changes, extension installations, and many other problems.

These days there is a delay before new installations can be made. When Miss Peterson shows you the volume figures of new orders and explains the difficulty in getting new facilities built fast enough to accommodate the flood of orders, we know you'll understand and be patient. Miss Peterson and the rest of us are proud that we have already brought telephone service to an additional 10,853 stations to date this year.
