

Felipe, Reekman Lead Point Makers

Including the games Saturday night, Reekman and Felipe lead the high school scorers with 100 points each. As will be noted in the tabulation of the box score, Reekman has one more field goal than Felipe, who showed greater ability on the foul line.

Groesbeck, whose aggressive play gets him into the fray at all times, committed the most personal fouls. The score:

Gold Beach Evens Score In Hoop Tilt

Minus services of Doyle Rausch who had sprained his ankle severely earlier in the week, Brookings suffered their second defeat of the season last Friday night at Gold Beach, 29 to 25. The B squad had no trouble in vanquishing their opponents, 44 to 22 in the preliminary game, when Reekman and Kinion ran wild with 12 and 11 points respectively.

The girls, coveting the county championship in volleyball, went about their winning ways to dump the host team 35 to 22, although Gold Beach bid strongly to win at all times.

Bruins Avenge Earlier Defeat

An early lead, Monday evening, stood the Bruins well in their return game against Ophir, when the Bruins earned revenge for an defeat, 42 to 36.

Minus Doyle Rausch, who may be lost for the season, the lads decided this game was for Doyle and that a win would throw the lead for the county league into a three-way tie.

In the first quarter, Brookings jumped in to a 15 to 5 lead, increasing it to 28 to 16 at the half. In the second half, Ophir, realizing they were being thrown out of the league lead, started a counter-offensive of their own. With the tempo of the struggle reaching proportions of a tropical heat-wave, Brookings managed to hold but a three point lead at the end of the third quarter, 35 to 32. The Bruins seeing glory vanish, stemmed the onslaught in the final quarter with an effective stall, to win, when Ophir fouled desperately to get possession of the ball.

The volleyball championship came a step closer to realization for the girls, in the preliminary, when the locals went out and systematically massacred the visitors. Norma Felipe, serving first became so tired after serving 14 that she deliberately hit the net with the 15th. Ophir could not cope with the cannon-ball shots of the locals, and was behind, 39 to 2 at the half. Lynn Hampton, pinch hitting for Mrs. Hampton as coach for the evening, benched all his regulars the second half, and the second string, even through careless play, kept mounting the score to the 58 to 17 final tally.

Basketball and Dance Attracts Crowd, Sat.

The double-header basketball game and dance, staged Saturday night by the Chetco Rod and Gun club, attracted a capacity house at both the high school gym and at the Grange hall.

In the curtain raiser, the Brookings High B squad dumped Smith River Independents, 24 to 13, with Reekman and Raymond leading the scoring with six points each. Melts, with four, led the visitor's attack.

Standing room was at a premium at the Grange hall when Chub Howe's orchestra made its appearance here for the first time.

Dr. Schmitt Talks To Odd Fellows

Last Thursday evening members of the IOOF were highly entertained to talk on one type of heart disease by W. A. O. Schmitt. This was given in language that layman could understand.

First the cause, then the prevention of that type of ailment. This was the first series of talks that Dr. Schmitt is going to give. All the present said they were glad to be sure to be present at the in the series.

It is hoped that at some time Dr. Schmitt will be able to give these lectures to the general public, as this type of edge is of benefit to all who listen to him.

Cub Scout Doing Monday Afternoon at the Home

Den 1 met and played for Monday afternoon at the home. Each cub was supposed to bring tricks, but only a few shown.

We are glad that Mr. W. is with us again after his return to the hospital.

Why can't we hear from other dens?
