Boy Scout News

Hi, Fellows:

The mulligan put on by the Bears last week was pretty good eating. Each time it gets better. Its really going to be some chow after you fellows have been at it for a while.

The Bear patrol decided to take the money, instead of the trip, as prize for selling tickets. $11 dollars was decided to be the amount that would have been spent had they gone on the trip, so the Bear treasury is richer by that amount. Have you Eagles decided hat you want to do?

Both the Eagle and the Bears showed their colors at the last meeting. Ben Kerns, Cub master was juddge of the patrol flags. the nod going to the Eagles.

By the way fellows, what about inviting the scout committee to the next mulligan?
