

ALVIN TURLEY WAS WED EASTER SUN. IN CHICAGO

Son of Mr. and Mrs.
Otto Turley, Once
Resident Here

From Mr. and Mrs. Otto Turley, east on an extended trip, comes the news of the marriage of their son at Chicago. The account of the ceremony is taken from the church bulletin:

In the lovely setting of Easter, palms, and candlelight, Evelyn Anderson and Calvin Turley exchanged wedding vows Sunday at 5:00 o'clock at Sheridan Road New Church. After a half hour of familiar appropriate organ music, Elaine Douvas sang the hymn "Through The Years." The sessional hymn, "Oh Perfect Love," sung by the choir, was immediately followed by the well known "Wedding March."

The bride came down the aisle on the arm of her uncle, Mr. Walter Hanson. She was sweetly dressed in an ankle length gown of powder blue crepe with puffed sleeves, fitted bodice and very full skirt. Her half-hat of flowers and other accessories were white, and her only jewelry was a double strand of pearls. Her bridal bouquet was made of lily petals, centered with violets, and white ribbon streamers tied with white hyacinth blooms; and she carried it on a white bible given to her by the groom's sister, Mrs. Rollo Billings.

The bride came down the aisle the aisle by her sister, Patricia, who was charmingly dressed in a pleated, peach colored ballerina length silk dress; white gloves, and hat with peach veiling. Next came the lovely little flower girls, the three year old cousins, Ruth Bristow and Karen Gustafson. They were dressed in long peach colored taffeta dresses trimmed with dainty white lace. The three attendants carried identical bouquets of pastel spring flowers, and they wore pearl necklaces, gifts from the bride. Rev. John L. Boyer, minister of the Kenwood New Church, officiated at the instructional service, which was followed by the choir's singing the anthem, "Oh Rest In The Lord," from "Elijah."

The marriage covenant and double-ring ceremony was performed by the couple's pastor, Rev. Rollo K. Billings, brother-in-law of the groom.

Mr. and Mrs. Otto C. Turley are in Chicago visiting with their daughter, Mrs. Billings, and to attend the wedding of their son Calvin.
