Grade School Notes

FIRST GRADE NEWS

Lloyd and Floyd Chandler have been absent since last Thursday. We wonder if they have moved away. Virginia Wilber entered the first grade Monday. She comes from Cave Junction. Johnny Myers folks have moved into town. He doesn't ride the bus now.

Our arithmetic class made play money from cardboard, last Tuesday. We used real money for patterns.

We drew puppie dogs in our art class today.

Wednesday the report cards came out. We'll get our report cards only once more this school year. Markey James, Gary Wolfe, John Myer and Ona Isenhardt haven't been absent or tardy in the last nine weeks. Markey and John have a perfect attendance record for the year.

SECOND GRADE NEWS

Jackie Darger visited us Tuesday afternoon. Cecil Wilbur is a new second grader from Kerby. We are glad to have him.

Dennis and Anna both had a birthday on Sunday.

Anna Jean brought a bouquet of Easter lillies and Dale brought some trilliums.

Thirteen of us got 100 in arithmetic on Monday.

Friends and neighbors have new readers—"It Happened One Day."

THIRD GRADE NEWS

Everyone has passed the addition test in arithmetic. Now we will get to take our trip to the beach when the weather clears up.

David and Jack, Janet and Harold are spelling match winners.

Stanley Gribble is still ahead on book reports. Victor Kinion is ahead in his arithmetic book.

Each afternoon when teacher reads us a story we model our clay. Each day we make something different. We are listening to Indian stories now, so many of us are modeling Indian things.

FOURTH GRADE NEWS

We have a set of twins in our room. They came from Beach school in Portland. Their names are Robert and Roberta Zook. We like them very much. Now we have 31 children in our room.

We have a coin collection of money from all over the world.

Those having their name on the weekly arithmetic honor roll are Dickie Berger, Dixie Allsup, Joanne Darger, Lois LaClair, Marjorie Moore, Connie Jaklewicz and Melody Brimm.

We have a new picture of a boat race. The boat race is the race of the boats Robert E. Lee and Natchez. They are racing on Mississippi river.

We are making murals of transportation in geography.

We are not going to have any manners chart any more. We are having a good citizenship chart instead.

We have only nine more weeks of school until school is out.

Mrs. Matthews is reading us a new book. The name of it is "Street Fair." It is written about France. We like it very much.

We have a new baseball and baseball bat. We are trying to follow some rules we made as much as we can.

Virginia Akers and Barbara Gould, Reporters.
