

Ophir Girl To Give Dollar Dinner At Curry County Fair

GOLD BEACH — Betty Lou Whittaker, of the Ophir 4-H Foods club will give a dollar dinner at the Curry county fair, Saturday, Sept. 4, preliminary to entering the dollar dinner contest at the state fair at Salem. Betty Lou will prepare and serve a dinner to four people, the work being done on the fair grounds where anyone who wishes may watch. According to the ruling of the dollar dinner contest, 3½ hours will be allowed for preparing and serving the meal, and cleaning the booth. Before entering the booth complete plans will be made and groceries will be purchased by Mary Lou.

The dollar dinner contest is one of the most popular contests at the state fair, and Curry county fair goers are fortunate to have a contestant to watch. In order to be eligible to compete, a 4-H club girl must be enrolled in Foods III. Betty Lou is the only girl in Curry county who has progressed to that point.

All 4-H club girls in foods 2 will be interested to watch Betty Lou prepare this dinner.

County Fair Board Visits Grange Last Friday Evening

Leo Lucas, president of the Curry County fair board; Tom Ayers, fair manager, Mrs. Aldene Roberts, county home demonstration agent, and R. M. Knox, county agent, all members of the fair board were present last Friday evening at the Chetco Grange to give a picture of the progress being made by the fair.

A discussion on entering a fair booth by Chetco Grange followed their talks. Benjamin Jones was appointed to head the committee, and anyone wishing to participate is urged to contact him.

Mr. and Mrs. A. H. Shean and Mr. and Mrs. Albert Joy were obligated in the third and fourth degrees.

The lecturer announced that Booster Night would be held on Saturday evening, Oct. 2, and it was voted to extend invitations to Lake Earl, Crescent Redwood and Ophir Granges. A short lecture hour was presented by Mrs. Maude Sandbo who was in charge of the programs during August. Mrs. Marie Mempel will be in charge of the program during September.

Following the meeting a social hour was enjoyed, with refreshments of doughnuts and coffee being served by Mr. and Mrs. H. E. Swinney, Mr. and Mrs. John Kinney, Mrs. Sphia Jones and Benjamin Jones.

Auxiliary Heads Due Here Friday

Mrs. Ruth Coyner, department president of American Legion Auxiliary and Grace Detlefson, district president, will be visitors in this area Friday evening at a meeting of the local unit.

For the occasion a reception will be held at the Osa Johnson home at seven o'clock. All members of the Auxiliary are urged to be present.

Caparoon Exhonorated Of Accident Blame

David Caparoon, driver of the Freeman truck, which was involved in the accident near Eureka, last week, was exhonorated of all blame by the coroner's inquest, the Humboldt County Times reported.

Driving conditions, which included wet pavement, were alone responsible. Mr. Caparoon, however, does not find peace of mind by this verdict.

Card Of Thanks

We wish to express our sincere thanks and appreciation to all who helped us in our hours of trial and suffering, when I lay so ill, by their prayers, cards and helpful service. How thankful I am for the kind Christian doctors and nurses. It was thru them and the prayers of many and faith in our Lord that my life was spared. Mrs. Baughn also joins me in this.
