

Centennial Capers To Be Staged By C. C. Lions Club

CRESCENT CITY — The local Lions Club held their regular meeting at Hotel Lauff last Tuesday and after lively evening of good natured bantering, settled down to more serious business which consisted of plans for their coming Centennial Capers.

Lion Vaughn Pyke spoke of the necessity of every member getting back of this project. Plans were laid for each member to contact the various service and business organizations and various schools of the county and Brookings.

Wednesday night, Oct. 20, was set aside as Talent Party night at Del Norte high school gym, at 8 p. m. Everyone who was interested in trying out for the production was present, and met directors of Celler Productions of Hollywood. The proceeds of this production will go to buy equipment for the the grade school.

Earl Donaldson, past president of the Crescent City Lions club, was present Tuesday noon at the noon luncheon of Brookings Rotary club to present the case, and to ask for volunteers of talent.

Marine Corps Pfc's Are Home On Leave Now

Pfc's Howard Groebbeck, Kenneth Hanley and Gilbert Croft arrived on leave last Wednesday from San Diego, where they just completed marine corps boot training.

Gilbert Croft's parents moved to this area after he had enlisted in service. Howard was a '48 graduate of Brookings high, and was a letterman in basketball.
