

In The Mail-box:

Editor, Pilot: This is to advise you that Curry County Post, 966, Veterans of Foreign Wars, Brookings, Ore., deplors the statements you have made in your Sept. 30, 1948, editorial, stirring up unwarranted and unbased controversy within Curry county. This editorial, this post of overseas veterans feels, must be indicative of your own personal attitude as we and all others with whom we have discussed it—and they are many—know it hurt many fine men and women and advertised abroad the atmosphere distinctly contrary to what your masthead proclaims as "Nowhere a Finer Community."

The Ladies Auxillary to this post early purchased membership in the Curry County Hospital Association. Several of us and our ladies are energetically forwarding the county hospital plan.

Speaking of the men of Curry county who have a battle earned right to be heard, we especially recommend your publishing this letter and advise you that copies of it are being sent to the Curry County Reporter, Gold Beach, the Del Norte Triplicate, Crescent

City, and to the chairman of the hospital association, Gold Beach. Faithfully, Roy Alvin Stephenson, Commander, Dist. 6, Department of Oregon, V. F. W.; Harriett Stephenson, President, Dist. 6, Ladies Auxillary, Department of Oregon, V. F. W.

School Notes

Tuesday morning the town children first graders—19 in number—moved over to the basement of the Community church. Mrs. Jennie Carter, who taught last year near Newberg, has been engaged as teacher. The basement has been remodeled, entirely sealed with firtex, repainted, floors sanded and varnished so that the room makes a very acceptable school room. Since it is not necessary for the town children to wait for the bus, it was thought best to divide on that basis. Since the plant has furnace heat, and the lights made over to lighting specifications, it is indeed fortunate that this arrangement can be made.

At a special election last week, Adrienne Zook and Juneve Briscoe were elected yell queens for the coming year.

Tuesday evening the Brookings teachers enjoyed a "get-together" on the beach near Miss Woodward's new home. A pot luck supper was served and the teachers and their families enjoyed a pleasant social evening.
