

Awards Made At Cub Pack Meeting

Pack 332 had a grand turnout at the pack meeting, Monday evening at the high school gym with 28 Cubs, 5 den chiefs, 4 den mothers, 5 Cub leaders, and 22 parents present.

Gold stars were awarded to Gary Ault, Clifford Guthrie, Gerald Hendricks, Tony Meyers, Bob Swan, Pete Tierce, Dick Berger, Glen Stewart.

The Wolf rank and Gold Arrow were awarded to Larry Meyers. His father has missed only one pack meeting since Larry began.

Eddie Stark, Bob Shipley, Nicodemus Horn were given their den chief warrants. Ronald Akers and George Berger received theirs some time ago.

Ronald Akers is the first den chief in this area to receive the den chief's certificate of meritorious service for one full year of loyal service. Ronald did a fine job with his den.

Den No. 1, with Mrs. Ross Horn as den mother, and Nicodemus Horn as den chief, and Mr. Ault as den dad, won the American and pack flag for the month by an attendance of 9 parents and 9 Cubs out of a possible 11 Cubs and their parents. Just behind them was Mrs. A. L. Olsen of Den 2, with 6 parents and 8 Cubs. Mr. Olsen is their den dad.

Mrs. Carr of Den 4 sported 8 Cubs and 4 parents. Parents can help their den win this flag next month. Carl Berger is den dad. Mrs. Bob Swan of Den 5 had 5 Cubs and parents. A den dad is needed here.

We have 39 Cubs registered with the pack to date. About 8 boys are without a den because we need another den mother. Someone please come and offer your services for one hour each week, Monday from 4 to 5 p. m. Contact George Widney, Cub Master, P. O. Box 152, city.
