

GARDEN CLUB TO REALIZE MUCH

Ambition Program Is Outlined By Group

The year's program of the ambitious Azalea Garden club has been revealed by the program committee, and shows a program of many activities, and eventual accomplishments.

With about 150 members, this club has long set the pattern for garden lovers in the southwest corner of Oregon, and each year has made a state-wide name for itself by the staging of the annual flower show, at Azalea Festival time. These shows, nothing short of professional, have been written up in many publications over the state, as well as national magazines, having interests of gardens and homes.

Only recently this club had a man, Senator Wm. E. Walsh, a member of the legislature who is on the highway committee, as speaker at the Oct. 12 meeting. Senator Walsh knew, and said as much, that he respected all ideas and suggested by Azalea Garden club as for the general good of the state.

The Pilot will, when space permits, publish the entire calendar as it actually appears in the year-book, just off the press.

Mrs. Rose Stuhl, prominent lily grower of the area north of Crescent City, was a business visitor in Brookings Wednesday.

Lions Club Plans Centennial Capers

CRESCENT CITY — The first talent party for the coming production of Centennial Capers was held last Wednesday evening at the high school gym. The enthusiasm of those present ran high as they looked forward to the actual rehearsals to get under way.

Although there was representation of the producers at the first meeting, plans were laid for another get-together next Wednesday night at the Grade school auditorium, at 8 o'clock. Directors are certain to be present to set the machinery in motion.

Among those present at the gathering were Dewey Akers and Ed Ackley, representing Brookings Rotary club, Tom and Mrs. Ewing, Mrs. Bateman, who formerly worked with Cellers, Mr. and Mrs. Ray Johnson, President Kirby Swanson and other Lions club members.

After the preliminary signing up was over, the group was entertained by Eom Ewing, Tom Gooch, Mrs. Swanson, Ray Johnson, Chuck Glover and Floyd Haney, of this place.

Anyone interested in doing an act, or anything of the entertainment nature, are asked to come out to the Lions Club's talent party, Oct. 27, 8:00 p. m. at the grade school auditorium.

Bob Geiger, of Portland, former lily inspector in this area, was a business visitor here for several days last week.
