Interest 'Intense' In P.-T. A.-4-H Club Discussion, Thurs.

Intense interest was shown at the joint meeting of 4-H clubs, their leaders and Parent-Teachers Association, Thursday night, at the high school, when not only a large group of youngsters were present, but parents and others interested in the advancement of 4-H work.

Miss Esther Taskerud, state 4-H club agent, was principal speaker, and stressed the qualities developed by and through 4-H work. She especially pointed out the credit due leaders and parents for the club successes.

Mrs. Aldene Roberts, county home demonstration agent, presented pins to first-year 4-H club members and awards to the second and third-year members. Pins were also presented to leaders: Mrs. Dorothy Lockland, Mrs. Joe Zumpfe, Mrs. Esther Waldien and Lynn Hampton. A five-year pin was given Mrs. Henry.

Mrs. Roberts showed slides taken during the county fair, of children who had won ribbons.

Refreshments were served to club members and parents by the teachers and room-representatives of the third and fourth grades: Mrs. S. D. Dotson, Mrs. Ruth Carr, Mrs. C. F. Campbell, Mrs. Lillian Mathews and Mrs. Olsen.

Extension Courses Offered Locally

A number of suggested extension courses, which may be applied on college credit or on advanced degrees, are available locally if 18 or more people can come to agreement on the particular course. Those wishing to study, may contact Mrs. Catherine Doherty, who is arranging a plan to begin shortly after the first of the year.

Courses offered include: Hygiene of the child (3 hrs.) American Foreign Relations (3 hrs.) Psychology of Childhood (3 hrs.) Character Education (3 hrs.) Community Recreation (3 hrs.) School and Community Club Work (3 hrs.) Problems of Child Welfare (3 hrs.) Juvenile Delinquency (3 hrs.) Human Relations (3 hrs.)

Storsets Manage Cleaning Plant

Ed and Mary Storset, who opened the first cleaning and pressing establishment in this area about two years ago, are now managers of Vogue Cleaners at Crescent City, it was announced last week. Bill Tierce has been appointed deliveryman for the new concern, and Monte Leonard as local agent.

Boasting one of the most modern establishments of its kind in the coast region, this concern will operate a delivery service in Brookings and Harbor each Monday and Thursday. Green saving stamps will be given on all goods left at and picked up from Monte Leonard's place.

Scout Executive Dies At Roseburg Home

Harold Ylvisaker, of Roseburg, regional director of Boy Scouts Of America, who, on a few occasions came to Brookings while Dave Putnam was away at an eastern training school of the Boy Scouts, died on Nov. 19, it was learned here Monday. Mr. Ylvisaker, who was also a noted band leader, had accomplished a great deal in his job with the scout organization.

He is survived by his widow, and three sons. He had been ailing for many months.

Marjorie Thompson Was Wed To Art Benson, Friday Eve.

Marjorie Alice, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harold Thompson, and Arthur Benson, son of Mrs. Agda Bickner, were united in marriage, Friday evening at a double ring ceremony, held at the Baptist Community church. Rev. Mr. Schneideau, of Crescent City, officiated at the candle-light service before an altar banked with fall flowers and greens.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a floor-length dress of rose and blue changeable taffeta, a shoulder-length pink lace veil and carried an orchid nosegay.

She was attended by her sister, Mrs. Vivian Kirtley, who was dressed in emerald green taffeta and carried a nosegay of yellow rosebuds.

Best man was Bob Thompson, brother of the bride. Cal Musser and Elmer Hanscam Jr. were ushers.

Preceding the ceremony, Mrs. Norine Harvey played "Song of Love," "I Love You Truly" and the wedding march.

A reception was held in the church basement following the ceremony, at which time Mrs. Bickner served the wedding cake after the first cut was made by the bride and groom. Others assisting in the serving were Mrs. Howard James, Mrs. Ray Struening, Betty Brammer, Darlene James and Marilyn Struening.

For her going away costume, Mrs. Benson wore a rosewood gabardine suit. The brief honeymoon was spent at Patrick's Creek lodge.

The bride received her early education at Melchoir, Iowa, and high school work at Compton Junior College, in California. She came to this area about a year ago. The groom, coming here as a child, received his education in the local schools and completed the remainder of his high school course in the Marine Corps, with which he served over three years part of which was in the South Pacific.

Besides driving the school bus, the groom is employed at Cur-Del Cleaners. The couple will live on the Benson estate, near the old Harbor school.

Mrs. Miriam Barnes and daughter, Mrs. Norton and Diane left for Indiana the first of the week and plan to visit relatives there for about two months.

NEAR FLOODS FOLLOW HEAVY RAINS, MONDAY

Undetermined Amount Of Damage Done To Swan's Mill, Monday

With 4.42 inches of rain falling between 4 a. m. Monday and 10:00 a. m. Tuesday, this area experienced many inconveniences as activities began Tuesday morning.

Swans sawmill, built in a ravine, was damaged when water washed out the support to the sawdust conveyor, and a portion of the green chain. Mr. Swan could not be reached to learn the full extent of damage.

The bridge, near Mill Beach, was reported weakened by the flood stage of that small creek. Some damage was reported to highway 101 in various spots, where sections were washed out, causing probable weakening to the road at those points.

Back yard, front yards and low sections in streets were covered with several inches of water Tuesday morning. The basement of the Central building, especially that section occupied by the Pilot office, was covered with varying depths of water, up to two inches.

Lily Growers Will Elect Officers At Meeting, Monday

An urgent appeal to all lily growers to attend the forthcoming meeting of Croft Lily Growers Association, next Monday, Dec. 13, was voiced by officers of the organization, early this week.

Howard James, secretary, said that election of officers for 1949 will be held at this time and that it was the unanimous wish of all present officers that an entire new staff be elected to head the local group henceforth.

"We believe, James continued, "that some new blood is sorely needed and that the installation of 'new faces' will go a long way toward solving many of the big problems confronting local growers. We also believe that an active and progressive organization is vitally needed for the good of the industry. Undoubtedly the election of new leaders would be a step forward in the right direction toward the attainment of this goal.

"A cordial welcome is extended to all growers, whether members or not, to be present at the next meeting, Monday, Dec. 12, at 8:00 p. m. at the Grange hall."

George Funk, out-going president, told the Pilot, Wednesday that the by-laws had been amended about a year ago to allow any person interested in the future of the lily industry membership, despite the fact he may not be a grower. These people are invited to come and participate.

Lots of Moisture Fell In Vicinity, In 24 Hr. Period

For information of the people of the area, Paul Whirry, local weather bureau observer, furnished data concerning the rainfall, Monday and Tuesday. These are his official figures:

Dec. 6 to Dec. 7, 4 a. m. 2.00
Dec. 7, 4 a. m. to 10 a. m. 2.42
Dec. 6, to Dec. 7, 4 p. m. 4.06

These figures show that more than four inches of rainfall came in the 24-hour period, which included Monday night. This, according to Mr. Whirry, is not the heaviest recorded fall in that length of time, although it ranks among the heavy.

Bruins Romp Over Ophir Teams, Fri., In Season Opener

Started by the volleyball team which romped over Ophir 55-9, the Bruins, Friday evening, sent out another, probably the final notice that the Curry county hoop championship will not be decided without reckoning with them in 1949. The Ophir team was swamped, 49 to 20.

It was easy to see that Ophir was not playing up to the usual standard expected of them. On the other hand, Brookings showed only flashes of being the team expected of the boys. Ophir had trouble locating the hoop through the air-tight defense thrown up by the Bruins, but the Bruins missed more baskets than they connected with.

Local News Items

Jesse F. Jones, until recently the publisher of Dayton Tribune, was a caller in this area Tuesday, en route south where he and Mrs. Jones will visit. Mr. Jones recently sold that newspaper to Logan White, former publisher of Myrtle Point Herald.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Woodard returned Monday from a trip to Santa Cruz where they visited Mrs. Woodard's parents. They are driving a new Jeep station wagon these days.

Grants Pass Team Involved In Wreck, Which Killed Two

While en route home from Sunday, from Portland, where on Saturday they had won the state football championship, Grants Pass high school football team was involved in a bus wreck, some five miles from home, and two were killed outright. Five more, according to the radio report, are in the hospital, seriously injured.

Sterling Heater, one of the victims, was said to have made a valiant effort to remove Al Newman, who was evidently badly hurt, and died in the attempt. The other five reported injured are in the Grants Pass hospital.

Survivors told officers that the bus driver, just after he had approached the top of the hill, apparently lost control of the bus in the wet snow on the pavement. The bus turned over, and suddenly was enveloped in flames.

Escape was made by the passengers' breaking windows and crawling out. Heater was said to have aided one lad to get out, and was aiding his injured comrade, when the bus, burning rapidly, broke in two, and the half in which the two were, rolled down the hill, about 100 feet.

Town Was Waiting For Team

Some 1000 or more fans, parents and students were reported awaiting the arrival of the team, and were congregated at the high school gym, where a party had been planned. A motorist notified the stunned group of the accident.

6-Yr.-Old Boy Hit Tuesday Evening

Donald Kaheler, 6, a first year student in the local schools, is at the Seaside Hospital with a broken nose and possible skull fracture, result of being hit by a car, driven by Chris Brown, late Tuesday afternoon at the entrance of Brookings Trailer camp, where the child was being let out of the school bus.

While the bus was stopped, Chris turned out to go around, hitting the boy as he emerged from in front of the school bus. Several witness, in addition to the children in the bus, saw the lad hurled some feet. Brown was not held.

Rushed by ambulance to the hospital, the lad was reported to have regained consciousness late in the evening, although at that time doctors had not yet determined the extent of the injury, due to blood clots which "fogged" the X-ray pictures.

Death Claims Elderly Woman, On Saturday

Mrs. Margaret Wamsley, 77, of Everett, Wash., who has made her home with her daughter, Mrs. Bruce Lindsley, north of town, for the past three months, died Monday morning of a lingering illness.

Burial will be made at Everett, beside her late husband who died October 10, 1944.
