

Youth Have Chance To Take Academy 'Examinations'

WASHINGTON, D. C.—Congressman Harris Ellsworth announced the first of this week that preliminary qualifying examinations for vacancies at both the U. S. Naval and the U. S. Military Academies will be conducted by the U. S. Civil Service Commission, Monday, Jan. 17, 1949, at the post office buildings in Albany, Coos Bay, Eugene, Grans Pass, Medford, Roseburg, and Reedsport.

Candidates for admission must never have been married, and must be bonafide residents of the Fourth District. As of the date of entrance into the academies, July 1, 1949, appointees for the naval academy and Military academy must be 17 years of age. The maximum ages are 21 and 22 respectively except in the case of ex-service men who may be two years older. Service men within the proper age limits may compete and will be given the examinations by their commanding officers.

The examination will be about 3½ hours in length and confined to vocabulary and reading, spatial relations, and algebra. Nominations will be on the basis of grades earned in the examination.

Candidates desiring to compete should notify Congressman Harris Ellsworth, House Office building, Washington, D. C. not later than Jan. 7, indicating their choice of place for examination, legal residence, and date of their birth.

The drivers license examiner will be at the Grange hall, 9-1, Thursday, Dec. 16.

Bruins Dump Port Orford In 3 Games, Friday Evening

The Bruins invaded Port Orford last Friday evening like the conquering herd they were, coming away with three victories. In the curtain-raiser, the "B" squad tipped the hosts, 14-8; and the volleyball girls had no difficulty in running up a 55-9 score. The evening was climaxed by the "A" string which won 27-18.

Paced by Don Jacklewicz and Chris Brown, with 3 points each, the curtain-raiser started out to be a battle, with the score tied at 6-all at the half. Meager ability at the foul line was shown by both teams, Brookings tossing but two in 10 attempts while Port Orford couldn't connect in four tries. The box score:

Powers Here Next Monday

Postponed due to road conditions near Coquille, the game between Powers and Brookings will be played next Monday at the local gym. Powers, victors in the first meeting of the two teams, at Powers by two points, are in for a rough evening, the Bruins have promised.

Brookings To Gold Beach Friday
The Bruins will play Gold Beach on their floor Friday evening. Gold Beach lost to Ophir last Friday.

Brookings Rotary club members, their wives and children plan a Christmas party, Tuesday evening at the Grange hall. The children will be given treats at the close of the evening.

Mrs. Baitey, of Patrick's Creek visited her sister, Mrs. Edith Deveny, and brother E. B. Livingston over the week-end.

The local Christian Science Society purchased a scenic lot at corner of Myrtle and Pine, for purpose of building a new church. This transfer was made through the Lower Real Estate Agency.

Local News Items

The intermediate group of the newly-organized Girl Scout troop enjoyed a Christmas party, Sunday evening at the Odd Fellows hall. The girls arranged their own program which consisted of games, movies and refreshments. Many mothers, and a couple of fathers were present.
