

Realty Transfers

The lovely beach home and 4 acres owned by A. J. Matot was recently sold to Mr. and Mrs. Lurton J. Knee, of Torrey, Utah. Mr. and Mrs. Knee previously had operated the Pleasant Creek ranch near Torrey but have decided that they will be more content in a less arid climate. The salmon and steelhead fishing may also have been a determining factor in their decision to make this their home as Mr. Knee has already put in two successful days on the river albeit they only established their residence here a week ago.

The attractive little ocean view home of Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Harris has just been sold to Mr. and Mrs. Ross R. Salvage of Cave Junction. They plan to occupy their new home around the first of February.

Both these transactions were handled through the Pete J. Lesmeister agency.

SMITH RIVER

Smith River Community hall was filled last Thursday evening when parents and friends of the local school gathered to witness the Christmas program, put on under direction of the teachers, Mrs. Helen Tracy, Mrs. Lorraine Nilsen, Mrs. Una Rowley, Mrs. Mary Ostrum and Guyla Giddings as pianist.

Mrs. Tracy spoke a few words of welcome and thanked those helping with arrangements, costumes, and stage lighting. The program was:

"Night Before Christmas," by first grade pupils.

Play, "Come Ye To Bethlehem" by second and third grades.

Pageant, "The Christmas Story and Birth of Christ Child," with pupils of entire school taking part.

A chorus of pupils from fourth to eighth grades sang Christmas carols during the pageant.

Singing, "Silent Night" closed the program and Santa Claus arrived to pass out candy canes to all the children.

The Sunday school program of Smith River church was held on Sunday evening at the church with pupils of the Sunday school taking part. Direction was by Mrs. Ida Hall. Miss Sandra Elftman announced the program consisting of songs, readings, exercises, plays, all pertaining to the Christmas season. At the close of the program Ronald McClish showed color slides, with words entitled "Where the littlest Camel Knelt."

The pictures carried out the story of the birth of the Christ Child. The evening close when Santa came and gave out bags of candy and treats to the children. The church was decorated with greenery and colored lights and a tree was beautifully decorated.

Following the Christmas program at the church Sunday evening, members of the choir went to the Community hall and broadcast Christmas carols under direction of Mr. McClish. Recordings of the songs were made. There were 25 voices in these carols. Later the young folks went around to shut-ins of the community and sang. This done they gathered at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Darrow Nelson to enjoy hot chili and crackers.

The ladies society of the local church held its final meeting of the old year at the home of Mrs. Agnes Maris Thursday afternoon. Mrs. Betty McClish presided at the business session. Ethel Naill was named vice-president to fill a vacancy. A donation was sent to Fred Furch Orphan home, the group also voted to help provide candy for the Sunday school children. Mrs. Haist gave a talk on the need of food and clothing in China where she was stationed as missionary for many years.

A reading: "The Story of the Christ Child" was given by Mrs. Eunice Faris.

Refreshments, served by Mrs. Ida Hall and Mrs. Ethel Naill, were enjoyed at the close of the afternoon, with a silver offering.

Trustees of Smith River community hall are making plans for the New Years dance, to be held on Dec. 31, at the hall. It is hoped this dance will be a big affair.

Mrs. Eva Hill is the proud great-grandmother. A little son, Robert James, was born to Mr. and Mrs. Jim Adams at Gold Beach, Dec. 14. Mrs. Adams is the former Dollie Jean Crockett.

Mr. and Mrs. Jack VanZee and two sons left for Santa Rosa to spend Christmas holidays with relatives.

Bruins Hit Gold Beach Three Times In Same Manner

Gold Beach wasn't able to salvage a single game, Friday night on their home floor when the three Bruins' squads invaded the county seat on the first meeting of the two schools.

The "B" string had little difficulty in disposing of their game in a way pleasing to Brookings fans. The volleyball team, using deadly precision, simply swamped their host team, and then the battle began between the two "A" squads. In this game, however, Gold Beach contested every point bitterly, and at no time did the Bruins feel safely ahead to do any "coasting."

Second String Wins

Chris Brown, with 9 points and Garvin with 7, paced the second string to topple Gold Beach aggregation 26 to 15; leading at the half-time, 14-10.

Volleyball Girls Start Avalanche
Brookings started out to annihilate the Gold Beach girls in volleyball, and almost did just that thing. The score, reported to be 55 to 9 is disputed, but it is a certainty that Brookings did score over 50 points.

First String Game Close

Paced by Rausch with 12, Gardner with 9 and Reiling with 7 points, the "A" string did not have the walk-away fans had anticipated, judging from the initial showing at the jamboree.

Instead, the Gold Beach lads put up a terrific battle, and a portion of the first half were in the lead. The pace, it seemed, was too much for the county seat lads, who fell behind in the second half, when Brookings gained a 10-point lead.

From a 16-15 margin at the half, Brookings had a tie at the third quarter, at 23-all, but went out to win, 35 to 29.
