Born in Norway, July 29, 1881, Mrs. Nilsen came to America in 1910, settling in Washington. She was married to Hilmer Nilsen in 1911 at Langlois, and moved to this locality with her family in 1928, where she has since made her home.

Surviving are her widower, Hilmer, a daughter, Mrs. Agnes Davis of Eureka, three sons: Christian of Lafayette, Calif., Harold of Crescent City and Andrew of Smith River, and three grandchildren. A sister in Norway and a brother in Minnesota are other survivors.

She was active in church affairs and was a member of Lake Earl Grange, taking an active part in that group until a few years ago when her health failed.

Snow Blankets Vicinity

A heavy blanket of snow covered the ground and hills Friday morning, with more falling during the day to a depth of three inches. With heavy frosts and thick ice, and temperatures down to 22, has frozen over the snow with plenty remaining in shaded places. Children of the community have had fun playing, making snow men that are still standing in front yards of homes.

Dairymen Met At Grange Hall

Del Norte dairymen held their annual meeting of the association last Friday at Lake Earl Grange. Ladies of the Grange served a luncheon at noon, with 50 dairymen present. Clarence Westbrook presided. Guest speakers were Richard J. Werner, manager of California dairy advisory board, Douglas Pine and Harry Tucker, farm advisors for Humboldt and Del Norte counties.
