

High School Pupils Furnish Program For P.-T. A. Thurs.

High school students took part in the Parent-Teacher Association program last Thursday evening. Supt. Lynn Hampton introduced Gene Reiling, senior, who gave some general idea of democracy. He summarized his remarks when he said: "The three principles of democracy: freedom, opportunity, and responsibility, were taught through the home, school and church."

Mrs. Archie Hendricks talked on democracy in the P.-T. A. She was followed by a piano solo, "Minuet '11 Antique" by Paderewski, played by Marilyn Struebing; vocal solo, "Soul Daily Building," by Betti Goldizen and accompanied by Mrs. Bert DeMoss.

To celebrate Parent-Teachers Association founders' month, Mrs. Wm. Foltz lighted candles about the cake and told of the national congress of Parents and Teachers. Mrs. C. H. Rausch gave the highlights of the organization in this area since it was organized in 1936.

During the business meeting it was voted to provide the high school girls with a clothes rack on which rain clothing might be hung. Mrs. Ira Brown was named chairman of the table of antiques to be displayed at the library benefit tea, set for Feb. 22. Anyone wishing to have their antiques displayed on this table should contact Mrs. Brown.

It was voted, also, to sponsor the Teen-Age party, Friday evening at the Odd Fellows hall.

The P.-T. A. will sponsor an evening of outside entertainment for the entire family, Feb. 23,
