Special notice is given to the religious film, a sound movie, which will be shown at the Baptist Community church, at 7:30.

As you find it announced in another part of this paper, the title of the film is "The Power of God." It is a film with a running time of 55 minutes. The setting for the film is here in America, in a typical American town and how they solved the respective problems through acceptance of Christ as Savior.

Christian concern for the welfare of others and the importance of personal evangelism is stressed. It is for young people and adults alike.

If anyone ever sees this film they will never forget it. The church invites all of the people of the community to come. It is sponsored by the young people of the church.

Other services for Sunday are: Sunday school at 9:45 a. m. with classes for all ages.
