Baseball Games To Be Played Before Festival Visitors

Brookings Pelicans drew a bye in their Rogue Valley league schedule last Sunday, but will make up for lost time this coming Azalea Festival week-end when they play the high school nine on the local diamond Saturday afternoon and also take on the Cave Junction team in a league game here at 2:00 p. m. Sunday afternoon.

While the Pelicans had an overwhelming victory when they defeated Glendale by a 15 to 1 score in the opening game it is believed they will meet a tough opponent in Cave Junction in the Sunday game.

Cave Junction defeated Merlin by a 12 to 6 score in their opener on May 8 and also won their second game against Eagle Point last Sunday, 10 to 5. Eagle Point had previously defeated Rogue River 16 to 12 in 11 innings.

Pelican manager Babe Swearingen plans to field practically the same line-up he used against the Glendale team, with Dick Salvage, last year a Cave Junction pitcher, facing his former teammates, and gunning for his second victory of the season.

In Saturday's game, it is said that the batteries will be exchanged, hoping to equalize the high school and league teams. A good game may result under this plan.

Budget Election Set For Next Mon.

To vote an additional $15,731.70 levy to be assessed against Dist. No. 17 to carry on the school for next year, voters will meet at the school next Monday to cast their ballots.

The polls will be open for one hour: 8:00 to 9:00 p. m., it was announced by the school board.

This amount, deleted from the budget by the Rural School Board, must be restored if this high school will remain standard by the state department of education.

Pioneer Assn. met At Gold Beach, Sat.

GOLD BEACH—In the regular meeting of Coos-Curry Pioneer Historical Association here Saturday, 60 people attended the luncheon served by ladies of the Episcopal church. The meeting was held in the youth center.

Jean Norton, Coquille, told of progress made in collecting data for the Coos-Curry history. It is being compiled by Emil Petersen, North Bend. The book is to be financed by donors contributing $100 each. These donors will be listed in the book.

Speakers, Saturday, included Collier H. Buffington, Claude Giles of Coos Bay, John Nielson of Bandon and others.

The annual picnic will be held at Coquille late in July, with the date to be announced later.

Mrs. Frank Sandstrom left during the week-end for a couple of weeks visit at Portland.

National Garden Club Caravan Will Be Visitors At 1949 Festival Flower Show

The caravan of National Garden Club delegates—from 42 states—on their way to attend the annual convention of Garden Clubs at Portland this year, will pause in Brookings, Saturday, not only to view the flower show, but to inspect the azaleas in Azalea State Park. Most of the delegates are gathering in Los Angeles or San Francisco and will move, by caravan, all the way up the coast highway toward Portland.

Mrs. Hull, national president, is flying from New York to Eureka where she will meet the remainder of the delegation, and will attend a dedication of a conservation project of all garden clubs of America. This is to be known as the National Council of Garden Club's Redwood Park, south of Eureka.

After this dedication the caravan will come up the coast highway toward Brookings. The last report the Azalea Garden club had on this was that Mrs. Hull will arrive by bus with other delegates and after spending some time in Brookings, and after departure of the caravan bus, will be driven to Crescent City by Mrs. Guy Rice, Azalea Garden Club president, where Mrs. Hull will take a plane for Portland, ahead of the caravan.

The itinerary of these delegates, state presidents, their officers, the national council president, Mrs. Hull and officers, was all set before Azalea Garden Club realized that possibly they might be persuaded to "be going our way." Mrs. Hull accepted the invitation with enthusiasm and graciousness.

Mrs. Hull, and especially Mrs. Shearer, state president of California Federated Clubs, were co-operative. It took a lot of doing to change all travel arrangements to include Azalea Festival.

To quote Mrs. Shearer: "I am sure that all of us—good gardeners—will love to see your flower show and Oregon's beautiful azaleas. We should arrive sometime in the early afternoon."

Azalea Garden Club has been noted for its reputation among the garden clubs and a lot is expected of the local group. Club members predict a surprise for the visiting ladies.

"Theatre Party" Attracted Many From Here, Friday

The repeat performance of the Chetco Rod & Gun Club's Theatre Party at Crescent City last Friday, was reported by many local people to have been even better than the original offering in Brookings some weeks ago.

Under auspices of the Quarterback club, receipts from the production will be divided between the two organizations, for the club activities.

The Quarterback club sponsors all school athletics in Del Norte county, while the Rod and Gun Club is buying a new club home. No report was given out by either club of the amount of tickets sold, but people said the "house was packed."

Rev. Luther Ison Will Conduct Sunday Services

Plans for religious services at Azalea State Park, Sunday morning, according to Rev. Nick Neufeld, are: Combined choirs of all local churches to render the music. Rev. Luther O. Ison, Episcopal minister, of Gold Beach will bring the message.

In case of rain, the services are to be held at the Baptist Community church.

Former Harbor Man Dies, Fortuna

News of the unexpected death of Ethal (Ed) Jordan at Ferndale last Friday was received by relatives here during the week-end. Funeral services were held at Ferndale Monday afternoon at 2.

Ed Jordan was a member of the pioneer Jordan family of the Harbor and Upper Chetco area, and here and his family made their home here for many years on what is now the Victor Reynolds place. He is survived by his widow, six daughters and one son.

Those attending the funeral from Harbor included Mr. and Mrs. Milton Foster, Mr. and Mrs. Wiley Jordan, Raleigh and Lester Jordan.

Junior-Senior Prom Gay School Event

Following a pretty banquet, served at Vincent's dining room, members of the junior and senior classes, last Saturday evening, went to the high school gym where the juniors had provided the annual Junior Prom, a social event of the year.

Appropriately decorated, some 100-odd people, including many parents, enjoyed the evening. The music was furnished by Chetco Ramblers.
