

Smith River Post Observes Monday With "Services"

SMITH RIVER—Memorial services were held Monday by the local American Legion post. The veterans, auxiliary and Boy Scouts assembled at the community hall, then marched to the local cemetery, headed by flag bearers and firing squad. There services were held for the departed comrades, and flower were placed on the graves by members of the auxiliary. The closing prayer was given by Rev. E. C. Hicks.

Services were held at Indian cemetery followed by seaside service for those who lost their lives at sea. The park was dedicated in memory of Clifford Kemp by veterans, followed by a picnic lunch served at the beach.
