

Brookings-Harbor Pilot

Nowhere a Finer Climate - Nowhere A Finer Community

Volume Four, Number Sixteen.

BROOKINGS, CURRY COUNTY, OREGON

Thursday, June 16, 1949

19 Seniors Given Diplomas Last Friday; Dr. Rex Putnam, State Supt., Speaker

Dr. Rex Putnam, state superintendent of public instruction, was principal speaker Friday evening at the annual commencement exercises, held at the high school gym, when 19 seniors were given diplomas. At the same time 22 eighth graders were given their diplomas and right to enter any high school in the state.

Those graduating:

- Raymond Lyle Reekman
- Ina H. Payne
- Barbara Mae Stoller
- Ruth Hassett
- Betti Allynne Goldizen
- Marilyn Lee Struebing
- Joan Kathleen Byrne
- Thelma Lee Salmon
- Kenneth A. Janicke
- George Lester Gardner
- Gene Noel Colgrove
- Frederick Eugene Reiling
- Phyllis Ann Warnock
- Vernon Theodore Crockett
- Vern Robert Garvin
- Doyle Elman Rausch
- Fred Johnson
- Richard Lee Barton
- James H. Roderick
- Eighth Grade Graduates*
- Mary Lou Berger
- Betty Joyce Clauson
- Carol Kay DeMartin
- Margie Eugene Freeman
- Pauline Merle Hendricks
- Patsy Carolyn Hyland
- Mary Elaine LaClair
- LaVerne Lenore Landauer
- Fae Ardis Rausch
- Patsy Ruth Cook
- Bonnie Irene Salvage
- Alma Louise Duffy
- Jack E. Clauson
- Donald Arthur Crook
- Dennis R. Fadling
- Daniel M. Jagers
- Kenneth J. McDonald
- Raymond E. Murry
- Elmer LaVaughn Salmon
- Roger Alan Snyder
- Bruce G. Yelton
- James Earl Parker

Ruth Hassett, as salutatorian, welcomed all parents and friends to the commencement. Carol Kay DeMartin, choosing as her subject, "The Sense of Balance," expressed, in her own words, how a sense of balance in life was brought about through education. Joan Byrne, as valedictorian, gave briefly a resume of the class and its study in the local school, of the activities each had participated, and how the members were likely to remember this era in their lives.

Dr. Putnam, prefacing his remarks by making a statement he seemed to enjoy more and more these commencements which he has attended in the past 12 or more years. He complimented the area on its interest in these young people, that night being honored, for an accomplishment.

In his talk to the graduates, he

- Processional, "Pomp and Circumstance" .. Mrs. Lloyd Morris
- Invocation .. Rev. Nick N. Neufeld
- "I Passed By Your Window," Broke Lucas
- "Venetia," Kerr Zamecnik .. Girls Sextette
- Salutation, "Welcome" .. Ruth Hassett
- Elementary Valedictorian .. Carol Kay DeMartin
- "The Sense of Balance"*
- Solo, "The Gates of Spring," Eric Coates .. Betti Goldizen
- Valedictorian, "We'll Always Remember" .. Joan Byrne
- Introduction of Speaker .. Lynn O. Hampton
- Commencement Address .. Dr. Rex Putnam
- State Superintendent of Public Instruction
- Presentation of Class .. Lynn O. Hampton
- Presentation of Diplomas .. Mrs. Gladys Kindel
- Recessional, "The Community Grand March" Mrs. Lloyd Morris

took the five points brought out by Carol Kay DeMartin, to urge adherence in life. He said it was not necessary for a graduate to tell or to show his diploma to tell that he was educated. His actions told this.

Lily Growers Held Quarterly Meeting Monday Evening

The quarterly meeting of the Pacific Lily Growers Organization was held at Chetco Grange hall, Monday evening.

Out-of-town members from the state of Oregon were Mr. and Mrs. E. Blenis, Springfield; Ivan Reed, Mapleton; Clifford Walker, Albany; Roy Miller, Salem; Mrs. Umpleby, Cottage Grove; Donald Kingsley and C. W. Wester of Eugene.

Mrs. Marie Evans, Tidewater; Mr. and Mrs. William Madden, Waldport; and those from California were Harold Surprise, Albert Hartman and Mr. Colyn, of Arcata; Mr. and Mrs. A. Hoffman, Loren Lamb and Lionel Burroughs of Crescent City; The Westbrook Bros., Mr. and Mrs. Jacobson and Wm. Fisher of the Smith River area.

Business pertaining to growing and marketing of bulbs was discussed and steps were taken to establish better business relationship between grower and jobber.

Lower & Deveny Moves To Bus Depot Lobby

Lower and Deveny real estate office, this week, was moved from the Templar Hotel building to the Gardner building, where Mrs. Steen, who will be Greyhound agent after July 1, will conduct both offices.

In a statement to the Pilot, late Tuesday, Mrs. Steen said she planned to keep the bus depot office open for all buses from 6 a. m. until the 10 in the evening.

Mrs. Steen has obtained her real estate salesman license, and will be in charge of the Lower & Deveny office.

Margaret Byrne and Mary Ann Biddle, the two girls chosen by American Legion Auxiliary, to attend Beaver Girls State at Salem on the campus of Willamette University, left Sunday for Salem to begin their two weeks of training in government, politics and civics.

Benefit Musical Donated To '49 Blossom Time Fund

Douglas and Effie Jean Potts of Los Angeles will combine their musical ability with local talent in presenting a Lily Festival benefit program at Chetco Grange hall, next Sunday night at 8:00. The program is being sponsored by the local Seventh-Day Adventist church and all proceeds will be turned over to the festival committee.

In addition to a wide variety of musical numbers, several readings will be presented by local talent. Douglas and Effie Jean are children of Dr. A. E. Potts, of Peunte, Calif., who is well-known in this area.

Douglas, who is an accomplished violinist, pianist and organist, is currently studying toward his master's degree at Pomona College in the Los Angeles area. His sister is taking a dietetic course at the College of Medical Evangelists in Loma Linda. Besides being talented vocalist she is an accomplished pianist and cellist.

A similar program to this was presented in this area several years ago by this same group and was greatly appreciated by all who attended. There will be no admission charge Sunday but a collection will be taken during the program.

10 Buses Daily To Serve Coast Line

For summer trade, Greyhound, today, inaugurate two more bus schedules each way, daily. The new time-table for Brookings:

Southbound	Northbound
2:10 a. m.	12:18 a. m.
4:48 a. m.	7:27 a. m.
6:19 a. m.	10:08 a. m.
11:54 a. m.	1:53 p. m.
7:40 p. m.	7:27 p. m.

Effective as soon as the change can be made, Mrs. Martha Steen will become the local Greyhound agent, replacing Mr. and Mrs. L. B. Howsley, who must resign and move away because of ill health. Mrs. Howsley will remain at the depot until July 1.

Woodruff Present At Nat'l Lily Meet

Leslie Woodruff, noted flower culturist of this area, left Tuesday by plane for Fairfax, Va., to attend a convention of North American Lily Society, of which he is a member.

With Mr. Woodruff went many specimens of Fragrant Pardalium Giganteum and Fragrant Shuhsan, as well as many hardy garden lilies including Auratum, Parryi, Speciosum Rubrum, Croft, Henryi and others.

These lilies will be exhibited, and Mr. Woodruff will give a talk on their propagation.

Mrs. Sandstrom Rents Redwood Barber Shop

Mrs. Kathryn Sandstrom told the Pilot Monday that she had leased the Redwood Barber shop, next door to the Nook Cafe, and soon will move her beauty shop from Harbor. While she is away this week, and has some arrangements to make upon her return, she intimated she would open up in about two weeks. Announcement will be made next week.

Youth Sought For Entries Of Floats In Forthcoming Lily Blossom Time Parade

With sale of the Booster Tags to begin at once, and reports of interest in entering floats Lily Blossom Time committee conducted its weekly meeting, Tuesday evening at Grayshel's Coffee Mill Cafe.

Warren Smith was made vice-president of the group, to fill the vacancy of that office. Cliff Brimm was also inducted into the committee.

To stimulate interest in the event, June 27 to July 3, all local residents are urged to wear both a red tag and a lily blossom. Sale of these tags at 25c each will be used to defray expenses of the event. To have a little fun, and to arouse more interest, a kangaroo court, consisting of Bob Perkins, Bradley Page and Luther Tisdale, will deal with all who do not observe this plan.

Micky Gould and Lloyd Stefani are placed in charge of the Lily dance, the evening of July 2.

Booths for passing lily blossoms to tourists and guests, June 27 to July 4, will be manned by the

21 Girls Scouts Given Pins, Wed

Last Wednesday evening at the high school, 21 intermediate Girl Scouts were given their scout pins at an investiture ceremony. This group is under direction of Mrs. Roy Brimm and Mrs. Paul Shrader.

Following the service Henry Kerr showed motion pictures. Refreshments were served to the girls by parents.

Receiving pins were: Jo Ann Shrader, Carol Ann Benson, Mary Sue Tierce, Roberta Zook, Juanita James, Joanne Darger, Melody Brimm, Connie Jacklewicz, Lois LaClair, Delores Stark, DeEtta Hyland, Marjorie Moore, Maxine Moore, Janet Crump, Virginia Akers, Barbara Gould, Joan Clendenin, Joy Gott, Mary Knapp, Karen Simpson, Nellie Vaughan.

A number of the girls plan to attend Kleawox Girl Scout camp near Florence July 11 to 25.

2 School Board Members To Be Named, Monday

Two members, one for a one-year term and the other for three-year term, will be named Monday evening at the annual school meeting for Dist. No. 17, set for 8:00 o'clock.

Retiring members are Archie Hendricks, who was appointed to fill the vacancy left by resignation about a year ago; and Mrs. Gladys Kindel, chairman, whose three-year term expires.

According to talk about town this week, it seems to be the consensus that they will be re-nominated for the posts if they will accept.

SPEBSQSA Unit Names Officers; Await Charter

Application papers have been sent in for a charter for the local unit of SPEBSQSA, and the local group of 32 members elected officers, Monday, in preparation of becoming part of the national organization. The officers:

- President—Bob Perkins.
- Vice-President—Bradley Page.
- Secretary—Charles Grayshel.
- Treasurer—Carl Bolin.
- Board of directors include: E. E. Jones, Emil R. Moore, and Roy Weidman.

various organizations of the community, and the following schedule was announced:

- Monday, June 27—Better Half Club.
- Tuesday, June 28—Seventh-Day Adventist ladies.
- Wednesday, June 29—V. F. W. Auxiliary.
- Thursday, June 30—Garden Club.
- Friday, July 1—Harbor Community club.
- Saturday, July 2—Grange.
- Sunday, July 3—Rebekahs.

Sweepstakes Award Planned

In addition to the six first prize plaques to be given for the various groups, a sweepstakes will be given to the float, which, in the minds of the judges, is best in the parade. This will be an enormous plaque.

Many Floats Signed Up

According to Fred Moore, who has seen the business people of the area, 14 floats have already been signed up. No report has been made by Bill Duggan for the truckers, and Cliff Brimm intimated that the mills could be relied upon for something.

Mrs. A. P. Hendricks, who is in charge of the Juveniles, said she had not been able to contact youngsters, and wished that the Pilot would carry an appeal for the youth to see her at the store.

Earl Carson and Carl Bolin are going to contact growers about entering floats.

State P.-T. A. Gives Brookings Woman State Chairmanship

Brookings again receives recognition, when the Oregon Congress of Parents and Teachers executive board met and elected Mrs. Lloyd Morris, as state music chairman for the coming year. Mrs. Morris is president of the local group.

Mrs. Morris returned last Wednesday from Portland where she attended her first meeting as a member of the board of managers. Now that Curry and Coos counties have representation on the board it is hoped to have a council formed, combining the two counties.

The school of instruction for all P.-T. A. officers for Curry county will be held at Brookings the last of August or first of September.

As music chairman, Mrs. Morris hopes to stress throughout the state the need for more music in the home and in P.-T. A. meetings. Plans are now under way for formation of a group of "Mother-singers" in Brookings.

"Mother-singers" is a national name given to all choruses sponsored by P.-T. A.

Bible School Will Commence, Mon.

Daily vacation Bible School at Baptist Community church will commence, Monday, June 20 at 9:00 a. m., according to Rev. Nick N. Neufeld, pastor.

The ages, this year, are from four to sixteen, with the school to continue for a period of two weeks, three hours daily, Monday through Friday.

Registration will be held for the school, Saturday, June 18. Immediately following registration will be a parade, with treats at the finish for the pupils.