

Brookings Pelicans Come To Life In 7th With 11 Runs To Beat Rogue River, Sun.

Brookings Pelicans, currently tied with Cave Junction for Rogue Valley league lead, kept the record clean Sunday by trouncing Rogue River 24 to 7, at Rogue River. For six innings it had been a pitchers battle, with Rogue River leading the chase. In the seventh Brookings broke out with worse than "rash" and pushed over 11 runs when booming bats made a racket worse than thunder.

League Standings

Brookings	4	1	.800
Cave Junction	4	1	.800
Butte Falls	3	2	.600
Glendale	3	2	.600
Eagle Point	3	2	.600
Merlin	1	4	.200
Rogue River	0	6	.000

Brookings will travel to Merlin, next Sunday.

Cave Junction also walloped Butte Falls 18 to 10, thus keeping the two teams tied in league standing with four wins and one loss each.

Started Very Slow

The Pelicans looked anything but winners after three innings with the Rogues leading 4 to 3. Brookings had scored three unearned runs in the first when the host team bobbled, but came back with two runs in their half. The Rogues scored another brace in the third. It was in the fifth before the Pels scored again, with three in the fifth and three in the sixth.

Fattened Batting Averages

Apparently intent on increasing their batting averages, the Pelicans chased across 11 more runs in the first of the seventh for their biggest inning of the season. They added a final four in the ninth.

Dick Salvage, after somewhat shaky start, was meanwhile getting better as the game progressed, and had pitched four shutout innings when he retired in favor of Manager Babe Swearingen at the start of the eighth.

Babe found the Rogues still in a belligerent mood when they scored three on a walk and four hits, some poor base-running preventing further damage.

White Matson was again the big gun for the Pelicans, coming up with four hits in seven trips; Spangler, Ackley and Putnam, each had three hits and Mendenhall, Hanscam and Brunk settled for two apiece.

The Pelicans travel to Merlin next Sunday to wind up the first round of the schedule.

Postmasters Bill Coos Bay Meeting

State convention of National Association of Postmasters will held at Coos Bay, Ore., July 12 to 15, inclusive, says Mrs. Goldie Smith, local postmaster. Plans, she added, were being made for a trip down the coast, July 15, by way of Brookings to points of interest, especially the lily fields.

Local growers have signified intention of helping plan tours of the fields, if the group does come.

Concerning post offices of the state in general, Mrs. Smith told the Pilot that 15 Oregon post-offices had been advanced from third to second class. Brookings was one of this group. North Bend now boasts of a first class office, having jumped out of the second-class rating.

Power Outages Experienced Here

For about an hour Saturday evening, and again Sunday afternoon for almost six hours, this area of Curry county was without electricity, due to line trouble in the vicinity of Grants Pass it was reported.

Many residents of the area had difficulty in preparing evening meals, and few who planned late dinners, were handicapped.

Hardest hit, perhaps, was the Pine Cone theatre, which could not show, as the power did not come back on until about 9:00 p. m., too late for any customers.

"Coast-To-Coast" Saving Stamps Given In Brookings

As further inducement for the buying at home, three businesses this week advertised inauguration of "Coast-To-Coast" saving stamps on all purchases. While similar to other types of saving stamps in many ways, "Coast-To-Coast" stamps may be redeemed at any of the stores giving them instead of sending them away for merchandise.

Also, it is pointed out by businesses employing these stamps, redemption may be made in cash, or may be made in merchandise at the store where redemption is made.

While only three are advertised in this issue more are expected to join this group, the Pilot was told, Monday.
